DEWEY STRIKES HARD AT CRITICS

Berlin Crisis Left In Hands Of U. N. Council

West Powers Leave Door Ajar For New Compromise Plans

PARIS, Oct. 27 (AP)—The Western Powers today gave the neutrals on the Security Council—and Russia—an open invitation to make new proposals for settling the Berlin crisis.

That appeared to be the primary meaning of a British-French-American announcement which said the three powers are still ready to accept a settlement which would be "guided by the principles embodied" in the six-nation compromise resolution vetoed by Russia Monday.

The Western Power announcement was issued after a 70-minute meeting attended by Secretary of State George C. Marshall, British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman.

In a mildly worded and carefully drafted communique, they said they had decided to leave the Berlin issue on the agenda of the United Nations Security Council where they have repeatedly charged the Soviet blockade of Berlin imperils world peace.

Tacitly Reaffirm Charges

By deciding to leave the issue in the hands of the Security Council, they tacitly reaffirmed their charges and at the same time made it known that they were not ready yet to take the problem to the General Assembly for judgment by the 58 member countries.

The meeting of the Western foreign ministers followed a meeting earlier in the day between Marshall and Bevin at which Bevin formally notified the Secretary of State that the five members of the Western European Union had voted yesterday to ask the United States and Canada to join a North Atlantic defense alliance.

These developments came as:

1. Yugoslav Deputy Foreign Minister Ales Bebler delivered a three-hour speech in the Assembly's 58-member Political Committee, attacking the Greek government, the United States and Western policy in general. The committee rejected 45 to 6, with two abstaining, a Polish motion to invite a representative of Greek Guerrilla Leader Makros Vafiades to participate in United Nations debate on Greece.

Cut In U. S. Share Opposed

2. The Administrative and Budgetary Committee unanimously approved a recommendation that the United States continue paying 39.89 per cent of the United Nation's estimated $33,469,587 budget for next year. The United States paid on that basis this year but had asked that its share be reduced to one-third of the total contributions by members in 1949.

3. The Assembly's Subcommittee on Arms Reductions rejected 6 to

Two Killed, Three Hurt In Cargo Plane Crash

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 27. (AP)—Northwest Airlines reported two crew members were killed and three more injured when one of its cargo planes crashed and burned 35 miles north of Edmonton, Alta., early tonight.

There were no passengers aboard.

Line officials said the ship, a DC-4 had left here at 10:55 a. m. (CST) today, bound for Anchorage, Alaska, and had cleared the Edmonton control tower shortly before 6 p. m. (CST).

When radio contact with the ship was lost shortly thereafter, it was reported missing. Later, residents of the area said they had seen it crash and burst into flames. Rescue crews were sent to the scene.

Lewis Urges Truman Act To End "Shooting Of French Coal Miners"

Proposes President Cut Off ERP Funds; Green "Sympathetic"

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27 (AP) — John L. Lewis proposed today that President Truman use his control of the "money bags of the Marshall Plan" to end the "shooting of French coal miners who are hungry."

(A paralyzing French coal strike has been marked by violent clashes as police and troops moved to take over the pitheads. Communists have threatened to organize a general sitdown strike in Northern French mines in support of the strikers.)

AFL President William Green, in Minneapolis, said he is "rather sympathetic" to Lewis' suggestion.

There was no immediate response from the White House.

Lewis, who has urged his United Mine Workers to vote against Mr. Truman in the November 2 election, made his proposal in a letter to Green. The UMW leader said he assumed Green had the ear of the President and asked Green to use his influence toward getting Mr. Truman to intervene in the French labor crisis.

Green Wants More Information

Green commented:

"We could not and would not approve use of any help or funds provided for by the Marshall Plan to break a strike of mine workers in France."

But he said he wanted more information on United States aid to France before acting on Lewis' proposal.

Addressing Green as "one miner to another," Lewis declared:

"Truman could aid humanity and perhaps do himself a good turn by using some of the vast power in his hands in the control of the Marshall fund by requiring the French government to abandon its police state methods and cease making war on its own citizens who are coal miners, at the expense of the American taxpayers."

Reminding Green that both are anti-Communistic, Lewis continued:

"Each of us knows that oppression and hunger beget Communism. Each of us knows that freedom and fair treatment are the only antidote to Communism.

"What the French miners need is more pay wherewith to buy more food, accompanied by decent recognition and fair treatment. They could then be relied upon to overthrow any present Communist leadership or infiltration.

Pessimistic About ERP Success

"The future of France will be dark indeed in every economic, social, and political sense if American money, American guns and American bullets are to be used to shoot, starve and oppress French citizens, while the bureaucrats and the financially powerful in France subsist on American resources and deny the human element of the population any participation in the largesse of the Marshall Plan.

KINDNESS PAYS-- Barber Pasquale (Pat) Iarossi gave the late Charles Marion a home when the latter came to Camden, N. J., 44 years ago. Marion never forgot and in his will he left the barber a restaurant and the bulk of an estate valued at more than $20,000. Marion died last week.

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Oct. 27 (AP)—The Navy's top atomic bomb admiral said today the bomb was overrated.

It's still just another bomb," declared Rear Adm. William Sterling Parsons, the service's director of atomic defense.

Here from Washington to participate in Navy Day ceremonies, he told interviewers the bomb was not a "quick knockout" weapon unless it could be dropped by hundreds on selected targets.

"I would advise people," he added, "to take with a grain of salt stories about a super atom bomb."

Egyptian Losses Heavy, Jews Say

TEL AVIV, Israel, Oct. 27 (AP)—Egyptian offensive power in Palestine has been crushed by Israel's October 14-21 offensive in the Negev Desert, Haganah's military chief declared today.

At the same time a spokesman announced that Israel will not yield positions won in that offensive except by negotiation. Foreign Minister Moshe Shertok sent an answer to Paris rejecting the order of the acting United Nations mediator, Dr. Ralph Bunche, that the Jews withdraw to positions occupied before the offensive began.

Col. Yisal Yadin, chief of operations of Isael's forces, said the campaign, dubbed "Ten Plagues," destroyed the whole of the first line Egyptian air forces in Palestine, sank the Egyptian navy's flagship and either destroyed or bottled up all the best combat troops.

He said 1,500 to 2,000 Egyptians were killed and captured and together with other troops now pocketed constituted more than one-third of the original force of 25,000 to 30,000 men.

The crack Ninth Battalion, which made nearly all the heavy Egyptian attacks, was "one hundred per cent wiped out," and the flagship King

N. Y. Bus Drivers Vote To Return, Ending Revolt

Union Group Will Abide By Decision

NEW YORK, Oct. 27 (AP)—Drivers on the city's largest private bus line voted overwhelmingly tonight to go back to work, ending a two-day revolt against union back-to-work orders.

The vote by drivers for the Third Avenue Transit Corporation marked the end of the biggest surface transportation strike in city history. It had been marked by bitter factional disputes and affected transportation facilities used by 3,500,000 persons.

Drivers of six other private bus lines agreed to return to work earlier today.

The vote of the Third Avenue drivers was 2,014 to 566. Drivers who waited at Transport Hall while the Honest Ballot Association counted the votes greeted the result with cheers.

O'Dwyer Blames Reds

Some 1,200 Third Avenue drivers had voted earlier at a mass meeting to stay off their jobs, but agreed to abide by the result of tonight's secret vote.

The tieup began yesterday as a planned four-hour demonstration of 8,500 drivers but got out of control of union leaders.

Mayor William O'Dwyer blamed "Communist leadership" for failure of an insurgent faction to go back to work.

Service throughout the city was spotty today as some drivers refused to carry out directions to go back to their jobs issued by Michael Quill, president of the CIO Transport Workers Union. Many of the buses were rolling, however.

At the mid-afternoon mass meeting, the 1,200 drivers were urged three times by a leader of the rank-and-file revolt to resume work. They at first rejected his plea by a huge margin but eventually voted to accept the secret ballot outcome.

Test Of Strength

The leader, Austin Hogan, president of TWU Local 100, told the men bluntly at the mass meeting:

"My analysis of the picture is that you are not going to win this strike due to the sellout and the confusion."

Hogan and Quill engaged in a test of strength after a strike demonstration yesterday near City Hall Park.

After Quill's back-to-work order, Hogan immediately called a rump meeting and urged the drivers to make it a full-fledged strike.

He told them to seek pensions and additional wage boosts in addition to the retroactive pay which caused the dispute.

Stabbing Victim Ruled Out As Murder Suspect

GLEN BURNIE, Md., Oct. 27. (AP)—Anne Arundel police announced today that a 24-year old stabbing victim held under police guard in Boston had been "ruled out as a possible suspect" in a double killing here last month.

Chief of Police John H. Souers, Jr., said FBI tests showed a gun taken from the man was not the one used in the killings of John H. Mahlan, 25, and Mary Kline, 18.

Bullets from the gun had been airmailed from Boston last night.

Red Labor Leaders Order Coal Blockade In France

PARIS, Oct. 27. (AP)—The Communist labor leaders today launched an all-out blockade of coal imports and tied up at least 22 ships in seven French ports. The ships, mostly American, had 200,000 tons of coal aboard.

The government was reported considering ordering troops to unload the ships.

The blockade by dockers was called by the Communist-led General Confederation of Labor to support the 23-day-old coal strike which has shut off 3,000,000 tons of coal from France's own mines. The Confederation said it also would try to stop imports by rail.

The confederation took the steps as Francois Mitterand, of the Ministry of Information, announced: "It looks as if we are moving toward a resumption of work and an easing of tension in the situation."

U. S. Halts Gifts Under ERP Until Loan Pacts Made

Allies Will Suspend Reich Plant Removal

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27 (AP)—The United States today halted most of its remaining program of Marshall Plan gifts to Europe until nine European countries sign up for repayable loans.

This pressure move came simultaneously with a State Department announcement that France and Britain have agreed with the United States, at this country's request, to suspend the removal of about 300 industrial plants from Western Germany as war reparations.

The Economic Co-operation Administration took the first action and instigated the second. Both were interpreted as efforts to shape the European recovery effort on lines deemed by this country to be most effective.

Both Are Temporary

Both, also, are temporary.

The dismantling of the German plants will continue, Acting Secretary of State Lovett told a news conference. But it will be done in such a way, he said, that any plant can be reassembled after ECA picks out those which it believes would best serve overall European recovery by being kept in Germany.

ECA's shutdown on dollar gifts may not last two weeks, a spokesman suggested, if the European powers sign promptly more than $500,000,000 in loan agreements now pending. England and Iceland are not affected; they have signed.

$312,300,000 Loaned

The suspension was an obvious effort to jell the other loan negotiations. Congress ordered that 20 per cent of the Marshall Plan funds be in the form of direct loans for specific recovery projects.

This amounts to $1,000,000,000 out of the roughly $5,000,000,000 appropriated for first-year European recovery. Thus far only $312,300,000 has been loaned in more than nine months, while the gift funds have been 60 per cent expended.

As each of the nine countries affected — France, Italy, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Belgium, Ireland, the Netherlands and Turkey—takes its loan, it will immediately become eligible again for the outright grants.

Truman Declares He "Hates" Communism

Prelate "Merely Congratulated" Chief Executive

BOSTON, Oct. 27 (AP)—A White House secretary said Archbishop Richard J. Cushing, of Boston, told President Truman tonight he was waging a "great and courageous" fight in behalf of the people, but the Roman Catholic prelate asserted he "merely congratulated him on putting up a great fight."

Mr. Truman and the Archbishop met privately and afterwards Eben Ayers, a presidential secretary, said the prelate told the President:

"I think you are making one of the gretest and most courageous fights in history in behalf of the people.

However, the Archbishop said later the "connotation of my statement to President Truman was unwarranted. I merely congratulated him on putting up a great fight."

President Pledges "Never Surrender" Fight Against It

BOSTON, Oct. 27 (AP) — President Truman, bidding for Boston's Irish-Catholic ballots, said tonight: "Get this straight. I hate Communism. I detest the Godless creed it teaches."

He promised a "never surrender" fight against it.

Mr. Truman took his stand before thousands of Bostonians who yelled a long, lusty greeting as he took the stage in Mechanics Hall.

And he got a big hand when he lavished praise on Al Smith at the very beginning of his speech.

Cheering people jammed all 7,000 seats in the hall and spilled over outside.

Before parading to the auditorium, Mr. Truman visited Archbishop Richard J. Cushing, of Boston.

Likens Fight To Smith's

Then, to the throng in the bunting-festooned hall, the President said his fight, like that of the late Al Smith, is against a Republican appeal to "the passions of prejudice and intolerance." Smith, a Catholic, was the Democratic presidential candidate in 1928.

Now, Mr. Truman said, the Republicans tell us that they stand for unity.

"In the old days," he said. "Al Smith would have said 'that's baloney.' Today, the Happy Warrior would say 'that's a lot of hooey.'

"And if that rhymes with anything, it is not my fault."

When he got around to the "I hate Communism" part of the speech, 300-pound Bernard Cleary, a state Democratic leader, jumped to his feet and led three cheers from the crowd.

And there were more cheers for the "never surrender" pledge.

Outside the hall as the President drove up were pickets carrying signs demanding "let the Communists speak" and dismissal of indictments of Communists leaders.

Three-Minute Ovation

If the President saw them, he gave no indication of it.

And inside the hall as he entered another sign of a different character announced: "Harvard for Truman."

A band swung into "I'm Just Wild About Harry" and the crowd went

Alliance Talks Follow Election

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27 (AP)—As soon as the elections are out of the way next week, the United States is expected to lay the basis for a decision on a military alliance with Western Europe.

State Department officials, it was learned today, plan to consult leaders of Congress and the major political parties to find what they will support in the final drafting of a proposed treaty to create a North Atlantic mutual defense system.

Undersecretary of State Lovett told a news conference today that the first phase of the project non-Communist alliance already has been completed. This phase consisted of "exploratory" talks held here during the summer among Lovett and the ambassadors of Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Understandings reached in these talks did not involve commitments by anyone on anything, Lovett said. However, they did result in a general agreement among the participants on the form and scope of the unprecedented defense arrangement.

Charges Some Top Americans Voice Red Line

GOP Nominee Slaps President For His "Old Joe" Remark

CLEVELAND, Oct. 27—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey declared tonight "some Americans in places of authority" are doing this country "grave injury" by helping the Communist propaganda line.

The Republican presidential nominee, addressing an estimated 12,000 persons in the Cleveland Auditorium, did not name President Truman, but he directed his attack against the Truman administration.

Dewey, in a direct verbal jab at Mr. Truman, told his applauding audience world peace cannot be achieved "by jovially remarking we like good old Joe" Stalin.

The New York Governor was alluding to the President's remark in Oregon last Spring, that he likes "old Joe" but that Stalin could not carry out his agreements because he was a "prisoner of the Politburo."

Before Dewey came to the platform, Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) predicted to the audience that the people of Ohio would give the GOP nominee "an overwhelming majority of their votes."

Taft, who lost the presidential nomination to Dewey, said the New Yorker had not visited Ohio as much as he would if the state had not had potential nominees of its own in 1940, 1944 and 1948.

"Debt Of Gratitude"

Taft added that for that reason "we owe him a debt of gratitude which we can repay by working our heads off" for Dewey.

Taft, chairman of the key Senate Republican Policy Committee, predicted congressional co-operation "with President Dewey." He said we are prepared to submerge any "differences" in the interests of party harmony.

Mr. Truman, speaking in the same auditorium last night, drew an estimated crowd of 10,000 to 11,000 persons.

In tonight's speech, Dewey continued his attack on the Truman administration handling of foreign policy, declaring:

"Without partisanship, on a subject which is above partisanship, I am compelled to say to you that this problem of securing the peace must be handled much better than it has been handld in the past.

"Of course there is no easy answer. The road of easy answers is the road to disaster. But of one thing we can be sure: We shall not achieve peace by conducting these desperately important matters on a happy-thought basis or by jovially remarking that we like good old Joe."

As he did in Chicago last night, Dewey criticized the Democrats' campaign tactics.

Cites His Objections

Dewey said his "great overriding objectives" are:

College Student Refuses To Explain Disappearance

MONTREAL, Oct. 27. (AP)—A pretty 19-year-old Smith College student who turned up tired, penniless and in tears in Montreal refused to tell detectives today how she got here.

She is Lenore Shanhouse, Bay Ridge, Md., who disappeared from the campus at Northampton, Mass., Monday under unexplained circumstances.

Detectives quickly scotched a report that she had been kidnaped from the campus, but they said she refused to tell them any details of her canadian trip.

She was taken to police headquarters last night after she was discovered in a Montreal park. Later she was held in protective custody in a Montreal hotel.

Preparedness Is Theme Of Navy Day Addresses

[By The Associated Press]

The United States Navy told the world on Navy Day yesterday that it is ready to strike back swiftly at any aggressor.

The statements, some blunt and all of them optimistically confident, marked the 173rd anniversary of the founding of the American Navy by the Continental Congress back in 1775. Today's fleet was on display in many ports.

More than 150 admirals plus officers from the Army and Air Forces spoke in widely sepaarted communities observing the day. Theme of most of the addresses was naval preparedness.

Assistant Secretary of the Navy Mark E. Andrews delivered one of the most pointed addresses of the day. Obviously aimed at Russia and its satellites, Andrews said the United States Navy is ready to strike back quickly and forcefully from the Mediterranean against "any act of aggression."

Andrews, speaking in New Orleans, said the Mediterranean is a life line "flanked on the north by powers whose ideology is abhorrent to us and whose avowed policy is the destruction of our way of life."

Other Navy leaders, in speeches elsewhere, estimated the Russians have a fleet of 300 submarines. But they said this country is developing new, special forces to control underwater aggressors.

Rear Adm. Charles B. Momsen told a Cleveland audience that the United States Navy is developing special submarines to battle rival subs. Also, he spoke of "new and insideious mines" and "new devices" which increase firepower on destroyers.

"We are looking to atomic power as a means of propelling a true submarine a great distance at high speeds," Momsen said.

John Nicholas Brown, assistant secretary of the navy for air, said at Memphis that light carriers and surface ships have been organized into "killer teams" to track down new high-speed undersea craft.

Vice Admiral R. B. Carney, deputy chief of naval operations for logistics, told a Navy League banquet in Toledo, Ohio, that the carrier task force is virtually invulernable.

Doris Duke Wins Divorce From Dominican Diplomat

DORIS DUKE

RENO, Nev., Oct. 27—(AP)—Doris Duke, sometimes known as the world's richest heiress, today was awarded a divorce from Porfirio Rubirosa, Dominican diplomat, whom she married at Paris September 11, 1947.

District Judge William McKnight awarded the divorce on grounds of "extreme mental cruelty." Rubirosa did not contest the suit.

Miss Duke returned to Reno, where she maintains a home in an exclusive residential section, on October 24 after an extensive tour of Europe and South America.

She was divorced here from James H. R. Cromwell in 1944 and has kept a home here since that time.

Her attorney, William Woodburn, said her only plans for the future at present are to remain at her home here.

GOP Is Seen Winning Montgomery County

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27 (AP)—Political observers in nearby Maryland look for Montgomery County to go Republican next Tuesday but forecasts in Prince Georges County follow party lines.

In the light of the GOP trend and widespread apathy among voters, leaders of both major parties discount the fact that registered Democrats outnumber Republicans two to one in both counties.

Moscow Radio Reports Victory Going To Dewey

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27 (AP)—The Moscow radio says victory in the American presidential election is going to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

While the Soviets keep urging support for Henry Wallace, a broadcast recorded by American government monitors said:

"It is foretold on the basis of variouses canvasses of opinion that the election will put the Republicans into the White House."

Nurse Kidnaped, Forced To Sew Up Slashed Man

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 27—(AP)—A Birmingham nurse retold in a hospital tonight a story of being kidnaped and forced to sew up a severely slashed man in an isolated cabin 35 to 40 miles southeast of here.

The 40-year-old woman, Mrs. J. M. (Jackie) Wright, was questioned in greater detail by officers as she lay on her hospital bed. A divorcee, she is night nursing supervisor at Jefferson Hospital.

Attendants said she is suffering from shock and brush burns.

Shelby Deputy G. C. Looney said the weeping, semi-hysterical woman told him two masked men seized her last night as she left her home in her automobile en route to the hospital.

The deputy said she gave his account:

The men forced her to drive out the Birmingham-Opelika highway for some distance. They then blindfolded her, put cotton in her ears and transferred her to another car.

They later stopped, took off her blindfold and forced her to cross a creek on a foot-log and go to a cabin deep in the woods.

A badly-wounded man lay on the floor of the cabin. He had been slashed twice across the abdomen and once across his back.

With a flickering oil lamp as her only light, she sewed up the wounds with black sewing thread and two ordinary needles. One of the abductors gave the wounded man several tablets during the operation.

After she finished, the men ordered her to swallow one of the pills. She refused but took it when one man twisted her arm and slapped her face.

They ordered her to stay in her car an hour but she said she felt too "dizzy" to attempt to drive. She walked down the road about a mile before reaching a negro cabin and word was sent to Deputy Looney, who found her automobile and dove her to Birmingham.

Three Nazi Army Chiefs Convicted

NUERNBERG, Germany, Oct. 27 (AP)—An American war crimes court today acquitted 13 high German military commanders of plotting war but convicted at least three of them of war crimes.

In a 330-page judgement, the court handed down a blanket acquittal of all 13 defendants on the charge of plotting agressive war and struck out a charge of conspiracy. It then started to pronounce judgement on each defendant on two remaining counts of war crimes.

By the end of the day, it had dealt with four of the individual cases.

Field Marshall Hugo Sperrle, 62, was acquitted on all counts and ordered freed. He commanded the aerial fleet which blitzed London in 1940.

Field Marshal Karl Friedrich Wilhelm Von Kuechler and Gen. Hermann Hoth were convicted of carrying out Hitler's order for the summary execution of Communist commissars who fell into German hands. They also were convicted of crimes against civilians.

Field Marshal Wilhelm Von Leeb was found guilty of crimes against civilians.

The judgements of the three-man court were arrived at during a nine-months trial of three field marshals, five generals, an admiral and four lieutenant generals. The verdicts on the remaining nine will be read tomorrow, when sentences also are expected to be pronounced.

"To establish a just and lasting peace; to strengthen our country for the great obligations that providence has placed upon us; to unite the people of our country in a fellowship of mutual co-operation and understanding; working together to make America a better land for our children in a better world."

Dewey has been preaching a theme of American unity from the start of his campaign. Mr. Truman has been banging away at the idea that the kind of unity Dewey is talking about would lead to a depression under the Republicans.

In an obvious allusion to that criticism, Dewey said tonight:

"It is a tragic fact that at this crucial time the Communist propaganda line is being given substance by some Americans in places of authority.

"Whether they know it or not, they are voicing day after day the world-wide Communist propaganda that America is headed from boom to bust.

"They are ridiculing the old-fashioned idea of teamwork and unity. They are trying to divide our people by appeals to fear and prejudice."

W. Va. UMW Meetings Called To Get Out Vote

CHARLESTON, W.Va., Oct. 27—(AP)—West Virginia's mine union leadership made it doubly clear today that the purpose of local union meetings set for election day morning were for the purpose of "getting out the vote."

Letters went out from UNW District 17 headquarters here to all local union leaders suggesting that in connection with the meetings they request "all members to be present for the purpose of furnishing transportation and to see that the members of our union and their wives have an opportunity to vote."

The letters bore the signatures of President William Blizzard, Vice President Charles Payne and Secretary-Treasurer Raymond Lewis.

into a three-minute ovation as the Chief Executive walked onto the platform. Secretary of Labor Maurice J. Tobin, former Governor of Massachusetts, led some organized cheering.

And in his speech, Mr. Truman got another big hand when he said "we shall not retreat" from the "frank and firm position that Communism must not spread its tentacles into the western zones of Germany."

Vowing to battle Reds at home and abroad, Mr. Truman promised that "we shall feed Berlin."

"To a normal thinking individual it is nauseous to witness the shooting of coal miners because they are hungry," he wrote.

Lewis has been outspokenly pessimistic about the success of the Marshall Plan in combatting Communism in Europe.

"The moment you stop paying them they will do what they want to anyway," he told the recent miners' convention in connection with efforts to influence Western Europeans.

Compensation Fund Backlog Proposed

BALTIMORE, Oct. 27 (AP) — Proposals to create a state guaranteed fund for workmen's compensation and a new commission to deal with chronic alcoholics were ticketed for further study by the Legislative Council today.

The idea of a backlog to protect compensation claimants when insurance companies fold was presented in a one-page report, but was not received as simply.

A committee of insurance executives and public representatives who studied the suggestion came up with a split decision, and council members themselves showed no sign of agreement.

Hazelton A. Joyce, deputy insurance commissioner, offered the "majority" report, signed by himself and two others. This recommended a fund to be built up by stock and mutual companies which insure employers for claims by injured workers.

Contributions would stop when the fund equals five per cent of actual loss reserves earmarked by insurance companies for such claims.

The proposed "Commission on Alcoholism" would be made up of nine non-paid members to oversee aid to chronic tipplers.

W. Carl Lohmeyer, Baltimore businessman and chairman of the study committee, said experts estimate Maryland has almost 50,000 people who take liquor too seriously.

Lovett Explains

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27 (AP) — Undersecretary of State Lovett informed newsmen today that Secretary of State Marshall was told of President Truman's latest Palestine statement only after the President decided to issue it.

Earlier this week, Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross said the statement had been "cleared with the State Department." The statement opposed any changes in the original United Nations plan for partitioning Palestine, unless the changes are acceptable to Israel.

Lovett disclosed at a news conference that the White House told him of the presidential statement on Sunday afternoon, a few hours before it was made public.

Lovett said he then notified Marshall, who is in Paris representing the American government in the United Nations discussions on the future of Palestine.

Lovett declined to say what Marshall said when he was told about the presidential statement. He also declined to answer questions as to whether there was a conflict between the Truman and Marshall stands.

Ever Wonder How The Community Chest Started?

Denver, Colorado, was the starting place. Back in 1897, the people of Denver called a meeting to seek a solution to the problem of finding a better way for their charities to raise money, than by separate drives.

Out of that meeting the Community Chest idea was born. The Chest plan substitutes order and economy for the chaos and waste of a flood of separate drives; it insures fair distribution of funds. And, it unites the citizens of a community in serving and giving for the good of the community.

Argument Against Vote Machines Eliminated

Sixteen million voters will be doing what those in Allegany county should be doing on Election Day—casting their ballots by voting machines. According to a survey conducted by the Associated Press, thirty out of every 100 voters will pull the levers on 45,000 of the mechanical ballot-recording devices in 4,000 cities, towns and villages in nearly half the states in the Union.

The voting machine is not a new innovation for the vast majority of these people for in the 1944 presidential election 14,000,000 votes were cast by that method. The idea of using a machine instead of a pencil to vote has spread from coast to coast. The first was put into use in 1898 in Rochester, N. Y., and then were introduced in other cities in New York, and in Michigan, Pennsylvania and Iowa. They are now in use in Rhode Island, Connecticut, Indiana, Iowa, Wisconsin, Florida, Washington, and to lesser extent in other states including Maryland. In the Free State more perfect voting is now conducted in Baltimore City, Montgomery, Anne Arundel and Howard counties.

The people of Allegany county will have an opportunity to bring themselves into step with the above progressive states and communities by voting "YES" on the referendums on the general election ballot next Tuesday, which will, if they receive a majority of votes, direct the County Commissioners to do what the last session of the Maryland General Assembly intended they should do—install voting machines in this county before this election.

The Journal of the Maryland House of Delegates records every member of the Allegany county delegation with having voted in favor of the voting machine bills, while Senator Kimble secured the approval of the measures by Maryland Senate. With one exception, all members of the delegation are strong advocates of voting machines, and recently Senator Kimble stated he hoped the referendums would be approved by at least a 3 to 1 margin.

Members of the Allegany county Board of Election Supervisors, who are in a most favorable position to judge the value of voting machines as against the present paper ballot method, are strong supporters of referendums. The desire for voting machines is not a partisan one. Members of both the Democratic and Republican State Central Committees have been urging their adoption by Allegany county. They are fully cognizance of the reduction in election costs they will bring while, at the same time, make possible a more perfect recording of every vote. By approving the purchase of voting machines, every citizen is voting himself assurance that the ballot he casts in the future will be counted. There is no chance for voters to mark their ballot in such a way as to void them. Our form of government rests on participation by the people. Everyone's voice should be heard through the medium of the ballot. Make certain that yours will be through the device that will record it without human hands touching your ballot.

During the past ten days, this newspaper has taken the time to assemble facts and figures pertaining to voting machines, and has presented that information through its columns in order that voters might be fully acquainted with the advantages.

One major reason why some groups withheld support for the machines was that they did not feel that they should be purchased at the sacrifice of a school building program. If such would have been the case this newspaper would not have supported the move to substitute them for our outmoded voting system. But, as pointed out, the two were not only separate and distinct but the one would help pay for new schools through the savings made in election costs. In short, any thought that one would interfere with the other has been eliminated.

The Board of County Commissioners has voted to proceed with the school program—an action which is most commendable—because the members knew that the purchase of voting machines would not interfer with building schools. Otherwise, they would have delayed action on the one pending the results of the vote on the voting machine referendums. So, those who were not overly enthusiastic about authorizing voting machines should feel free to vote for their installation, especially since they know that that method of conducting elections will mean a perennial savings to every taxpayer.

The referendums will be found at the top of the second column on the ballots. Place your cross-marks in the squares reading FOR THE REFERRED LAW.

John Foster Dulles And What He Had To Say Of Clay

When John Foster Dulles visited Frankfurt the other day he not only sought a meeting with Gen. Clay but went out of his way to praise the American military governor of Gremany.

The man who is generally expected to become our next Secretary of State told the press that he needed the assistance in his work as an American delegate to the UN conference from Gen. Clay, "whose knowledge and judgment of German affairs I value most highly."

That was no polite gesture toward an official host. It was undoubtedly an effort to refute a rumor that has been going around to the effect that one of Dulles's first acts as Secretary of State would be to ask for the resignation of Gen. Clay. That rumor seems to be based on an uninformed belief that Clay and "the military" have been poaching on the preserves of the State Department in Europe. There have also been reports, unsupported by evidence, that th General and Dulles disagree as to the relative imporatnce of France and Germany in the economic recovery program. As the story goes, Dulles thinks the program must be "based" on France, while the General thinks it should be centered in Germany.

Such reckless simplifications do not occur to men of the experience of Dulles and Clay. The recovery of both France and Germany is essential to the recovery of Western Europe. In fact, much of our effort in Europe lately has been directed toward closer economic co-operation of the two former enemies.

The notion that either one could be "cut adrift" may appeal to cocktail party economists but has not occurred to men responsible for American policy in crisis-ridden Europe.

In going out of his way to destroy any such fanciful impression, Dulles has rendered the American public a service. His tribute to Clay is important also in making clear to Europe that American policy in Germany will continue, regardless of expected political changes in Washington.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made under proper limitations, when return stamped envelope is enclosed. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnosis or prescribe for individual diseases.

Mumps Rarely Serious

Mumps is contagious, but less so than measles, chickenpox, and diphtheria. Consequently, not every one who is susceptible comes down with the disease when exposed. Children between the ages of four and fourteen are the most likely candidates. The malady rarely appears during infancy possibly because the youngster inherits temporary immunity from his mother. On the other hand, adults who have never had the disturbance are not immune and in most army and navy hospitals, several cases are usually being cared for at all time.

Dr. Van Dellen

A filtrable virus is thought to be responsible, which is carried in the secretions of the involved glands. This may explain why mumps is not too contagious, attacking only those who come into direct contact with the secretions of the sick individual.

●—●—●

During the first two days of the illness, the condition is not suspected because symptoms resemble those of the ordinary cold. The youngster vomits, is fretful, and complains of headache and sore throat. Fever is also present but usually does not exceed 101 degrees F. As a rule, the affected glands become painful before they begin to swell. This most noticeable at the angle of the jaw, just below the ear, and is aggravated by moving the mouth or swallowing acid substances. If this clew does not suggest mumps, the puffiness that follows shortly thereafter certainly does. The parotid glands are involved and the area in front, below, and to a lesser extent behind the ear enlarges. The lobe is near the center of the swelling.

Puffiness seldom begins on both sides simultaneously; one generally follows the other within 24 to 48 hours. The swollen gland reaches its maximum size on the third day of the illness and remains as such for several days before starting to subside. When marked, the sufferer hardly looks like the same person and, if any of the salivary structures join the fracas, the face becomes as round as the moon. Ordinarily, by the end of two weeks, the youngster is well on the road to recovery and is no longer capable of transmitting the disease.

Almost every one recovers and those who have had the disorder are left with everlasting immunity. Second attacks are rare. On the other hand, painful complications occur now and then, especially to boys who have reached the age of puberty or older individuals. These are rarely serious however, and sterility is the exception rather than the rule.

There is no specific treatment. The sick boy or girl should be kept in bed until all signs of the ailment have disappeared. Liquids are preferred because "it hurts" to chew on anything solid. Lemon juice, pickels, and other sour edibles are refused because they also add to the discomfort. It makes no difference to the progress of the disease whether hot or cold applications are applied as their use is merely a matter of comfort.

A Family Stoop

B. W. writes: Are round shoulders inherited? My grandmother, dad, aunt, sister, and children are all affected in this way.

REPLY

This is possible but it may represent a simple matter of one mimicking the other. In other instances, it means that the parents have failed to correct the defect in their offspring.

Diabetes and Thyroid

O.C. writes: Could an overactive thyroid gland cause sugar in the urine?

REPLY

Wilder found that approximately 3 per cent of thyroid cases also have diabetes. In all probability there is no relationship between the two except that an overactive thyroid intensifies diabetes because it interferes with metabolism.

Frisky Brows

H.K. writes: My eyebrows keep moving up and down involuntarily. I am 45 years old. Could this be associated with the menopause?

REPLY

Your eyebrows may be trying to move away from the hot flashes. You are probably developing a nervous habit entirely unrelated to the menopause.

It Says Here

By BOB HOPE

The United Mine Workers' convention has approved a resolution to make February 12th, the birthday of John L. Lewis, a national holiday.

This birthday idea isn't so bad but I am ready to fight if they want to put Lewis' face on a postage stamp. Imagine . . . everytime you want to mail a letter . . . licking those eyebrows.

Naturally, Jack Benny is opposed to the idea of Lewis' birthday being a national holiday. It'll just make another day that the banks are closed.

Petrillo refused to let them honor him . . . he claimed it was just a trick to get the musicians to play "happy birthday" for nothing.

The whole thing is ridiculous . . . Imagine a little kid saying to his mother: "I don't have to go to school this morning, ma, it's Bob Hope Day." She says: "Bob Hope? Is he the father of his country?" and the kid says: "No . . . but he makes road pictures with him."

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

U. S. Fortunate In Having Many High-Ranking Legislators In House Of Representatives; Voters Cutting Party Lines This Year

By DREW PEARSON

(Editor's Note: Drew Pearson is on a tour of the west, taking political soundings prior to election).

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 27—There's a strong tendency in almost every part of the country to cut party lines in this election and vote for the best Congressman, regardless of party.

Following up previous Merry-Go-Round columns evaluating Congressmen who deserve re-election, here is a roll-call of others worthy of being returned to the House of Representatives. Fortunately for the country the list of good Congressmen is too long to be published here, but here follows a cross section of deserving legislators, some of them in close election battles:

Jim Wadsworth, New York Republicans—Not too proud to go back to the House of Representatives after serving in the Senate. A far-sighted battler for preparedness before Pearl Harbor and a real asset to Congress.

Sol Bloom, New York Democrat—A grand old warrior who has served his fellowmen for a quarter of a century, once in the theatrical business, Sol introduced the Salome dance to this country, is addicted to loud vests, can always be found fighting on the side of the underdog. Opposed by the left-wingers and Communists, Sol now faces the re-election race of his life.

Mike Monroney, Oklahoma Democrat—Recognized by both political parties as one of the finest men in Congress. He declined an invitation to be Truman's secretary of agriculture because he honestly believed he knew more about being a Congressman than about agriculture.

Karl Stefan, Nebraska Republican—Born in Czechoslovakia, Stefan has been of great help to the State Department in getting propaganda ideas behind the Iron Curtain. He has had the courage to buck reactionary GOP leadership in getting more money for anti-trust prosecution.

John Blatnik, Minnesota Democrat—Came to Congress with a great war record and has been just as courageous in Congress as he was in the Army.

Hugh Mitchell, Washington Democrat—Another ex-Senator who isn't too proud to serve his country in the House of Representatives. After a good, though brief, record in the Senate, he was defeated in the 1946 GOP landslide and is now running for the House.

Frank Havenner, California Democrat—Was a front-line battler for low-cost housing and did his own thinking on the Marshall Plan, despite strong opposition from the Wallaceites. Because of this the Wallaceites put up a candidate against Havenner, but later withdrew him.

Mel Price, Illinois Democrat—One of the few ex-G. I.'s in Congress. (most Congressional veterans were officers). Price enlisted in the Army as a private at the age of 38 and came out a sergeant. He has consistently battled against the real-estate lobby.

Gordon Canfield, New Jersey Republican—one of only eight Republicans who had the courage to vote against the real of price control.

Francis Walter, Pennsylvania Democrat—Staunch foe of bureaucy, frequently fought with Roosevelt over regulating Federal agencies, marched out of Congress to join the Navy during the war. Good voting record, a dangerous adversary in debate.

Helen Gahagan Douglas, California Democrat—Fought harder to defeat the real-estate lobby than almost anyone else in Congress; also an unrelenting battler for lower prices. A Brooklyn girl who made good in Hollywood, she has now made just as good in Congress.

John C. Brophy, Wisconsin Republican—Has the courage to bolt the GOP whip-crackers when he thinks he is right; worked for better housing, championed labor, uncovered scandal in sale of government ship accessories.

Chris Herter, Massachusetts Republican — Ranks alongside Senator Vandenberg as a battler for bipartisan foreign policy. Hard worker, influential leader.

Mike Kirwan, Ohio Democrat—Though he never got past the third grade, he has risen to leadership in the halls of Congress.

John Vorys, Ohio Republican Aggressive-thinking, slow-speaking, independent-voting, he is one of the respected GOP leaders.

Lansdale Sasscer, Maryland Democrat—Good, solid legislator with ability and leadership; keeps a sharp eye on the military; a picture of a Maryland country gentleman.

Henry Jackson, Washington Democrat — Forthright, persevering scrapper against the lobbies; never runs out on a fight no matter what the odds against him.

Gerald Landis, Indiana Republican—A former coal miner, he voted for the Taft-Hartley Act and now faces the real election fight of his life. Has worked for federal aid to education and mine inspection.

This column lacks the space to include many able Southern Congressmen who in real fact do not come before the voters now, since their fate was decided in earlier primaries.

It also lacks space to include many other high-rating legislators to whom credit has been paid in the past, among them are: Thurston Morton, Ky.; John Lodge and James Patterson, Conn.; Harold Hagen and Edward Devitt, Minn.; Willis Bradley, Calif.—All Republicans; and Chet Holafield, Calif.; Ray Madden, Ind.; Ed Hart, N. J.; John Carroll, Colo., and George Miller, Calif., all Democrats.

Republican Senate Needed If Dewey Is To Bring About Unity

By MARK SULLIVAN

In some ten states, voters next Tuesday will have an unusual and potent effect on the nation. They will be voting for United States Senator, and in so doing have the prerogative of saying whether they consider the Republican candidate or the Democratic one to be the better man. That is a local, state issue. But the aggregate of the votes for Senator in these roughly ten states will determine which party is to have a majority in the Senate and control it; and that is, under present conditions, a national question on the highest level.

Perhaps the Republican national party management, in their extreme and natural concern to keep a majority of the Senate, might be aided by explaining to the voters in the some ten critical states that they are voting on a national question. A voter in Minnesota, for example, who expects to vote for Mr. Dewey for President, but against the Republican candidate for Senator, Mr. Ball—such a voter might be led to change the latter part of his intention if he were made to see that his vote for Senator is a vote on a national question; that to vote for Mr. Dewey for President but at the same time vote to give him a Democratic Senate and a divided government would be to negative much of what he expects to accomplish by voting for Mr. Dewey.

Senate Continues In Doubt

The present election forecasts—practical certainty of the election of Mr. Dewey as President by a large majority, but extreme doubt about the outcome in the Senate—are an anomaly rare in the country's political history. With extremely few exceptions, every President since the Civil War, when he came into office, has had a party majority in both branches of Congress.

It has happened occasionally—but even this is rare—that during a President's tenure elections to Congress have given the opposition party a majority in one branch or the other. The latest example occurred in 1930. A Republican President, Mr. Hoover, had been elected in 1928, and with him a Republican majority in both Senate and House, but in the mid-term Congressional elections of 1930 the Democrats won control of the House. What followed is a forecast, under analagous conditions, of what might follow if Mr. Dewey should have a Democratic Senate. As President Hoover found it difficult to get from the divided Congress legislation needed in the emergency of severe depression, so might Mr. Dewey as President find it difficult to get legislation deemed by him to be needed in the present condition of the country and the world.

There are many voters who would refrain from bringing about this condition if they understood that, in voting for Senator, they were in effect voting for or against a unified government. Some who foresee the possibility of a Democratic majority in the Senate think that the prevention of a divided government can be accomplished by willingness of a margin of Democratic Senators to support legislation proposed by Mr. Dewey. There are Democratic Senators who in the public interest would do this. But there would remain a fundamental awkwardness in the underlying condition, the opposition party controlling the Senate, choosing a majority of the members of committees and naming the committee chairmen.

Anomaly In Election Prospects

For the anomaly in election prospects, there are several reasons, including a nationwide statistical one emphasized by Mr. Arthur Krock in the New York Times. As to the total of Senate seats to be filled next week, 17 are now held by Republicans, 14 by Democrats, and it is easier for losses to occur in 17 cases than in 14. An opposite condition helped the Republicans achieve their Senate majority in 1946; in that year 21 Democratic seats were to be filled, only 11 Republican ones. Further as to roughly 10 seats, some now held by Republicans and some by Democrats, local conditions favor the Democrats. An example is Minnesota. There the Republican candidate, Senator Ball, up for re-election, is remembered, with disapproval by some Republicans, as having opposed Mr. Dewey when he was the candidate for President in 1944. A further condition disadvantageous to him is that, when he first came to the Senate, he was regarded by labor leaders as favorable to them, but later was conspicuous in support of the Taft-Hartley act. In other states, varying conditions make likelihood of a stronger Republican vote for President than for the local candidate for the Senate. Three seats now held by the Republicans are in border states normally doubtful, West Virginia, Kentucky and Oklahoma.

Mediation Could Have Settled Russian Issue, It Is Contended

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27—There is much to be puzzled about in the news of what happened at Paris in the effort at mediation made by six "neutral" governments trying to lift the Berlin blockade.

It was not a clear-cut rejection by Russia of the demand that the blockade be lifted. The Soviets were ready to lift the blockade, but they wanted a face-saving formula to avoid being accused throughout their own country of having retreated. They wanted to avoid a blow to their pride and prestige as a sovereign nation—something on which the Soviets are far more sensitive than is generally realized.

But the western powers for reasons of their own—reasons not fully explained—refused to permit the Russians any face-saving formula and rejected out of hand the one way that the blockade might really have been lifted in the near buture.

The conditions imposed by Vishinsky at the last moment were that the blockade be lifted gradually and simultaneously with an agreement on the method of controlling the currency in Berlin. His idea evidently was that Russia should not be compelled to give up her strategic position in the bargaining in the event that there was no agreement ultimately on the currency question.

The western powers took the position, on the other hand, that to agree to a gradual withdrawal of blockade restrictions while at the same time discussing the currency question was "negotiation under duress." This is true, of course, but it is a strange point to make when the Western Powers have actually been negotiating under the duress of the blockade since last summer and the neutrals have been doing the same for several days at Paris. A few days more of negotiating "under duress" would not have militated against eventual agreement if any was really to be had.

Diplomacy At Fault

The diplomacy of the western powers is at fault for not accepting the proposal made by Vishinsky with a counterproposal of their own defining, with certain time limits, the number of days that would be given to a discussion of the currency agreement and the number of days within which Russia would promise complete removal of the blockade restrictions.

Already the western powers had stipulated that there would be no meeting of the Council of Foreign Ministers until a certain number of days had elapsed after the actual lifting of the blockade. This Russia apparently was ready to accept so it seems inexplicable as to why the western powers or the mediating countries did not take Vishinsky up and test the good faith of his currency suggestion.

It is idle to contend that the Russians do not want and never did want an agreement. Even assuming this to be true, it is the duty of the western powers not to becloud the record with any barrier of their own. It is much more important to make the kind of record that will convince neutral opinion that everything was done that could have been done to avert a break.

The theory of mediation which the Russians evidently pursued was in conformity with established practice in international law. A mediation in a critical dispute is usually based on retaining for each side the same strategic position which prevailed when the mediator entered the picture. The purpose, of course, is to permit freedom of discussion and an opportunity to revert to the position actually occupied before mediation started if the negotiations fail.

Russia, to be sure, is 100 per cent wrong in distrusting the good faith of the western powers, but this does not absolve the western powers from the duty to recognize the tactics of the party to a dispute who is distrustful.

If the objective is an eventual settlement by peaceful methods, the stronger nation loses nothing by a few days' delay during the time when a discussion ensues to determine if an agreement is at all possible. The Russians now can say they offered to lift the blockade, that they offered to lift it immediately upon reaching an agreement on the currency problem, but that their proposal was declined by the western powers.

The Soviet position can be made to look very plausible inside Russia. Likewise, for Moscow to have granted the demand of the western powers and to have lifted the blockade before an agreement on the details of the currency problem had been worked out would have been hailed throughout the world as a "victory" for the western powers. That would have hurt the Soviets inside Russia and among their satellite countries.

The key to a settlement with Russia is recognition of a simple principle—that Russia cannot be coerced without war and that she cannot expect to coerce the western powers without war. Mediation could have settled the issue at Paris. Maybe informal mediation outside the United Nations will continue. It is to be hoped that the progress made thus far will not be lost.

These Days

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

The Tragedy In Manchuria

RIGHTLY, Chinese ask, "How is it possible that the Americans have done so much for the Japanese and the Germans; yet they have left us a prey to the Russians?"

That unfortunately is precisely what has happened. First, General Stilwell went to China where he tried to boss Chiang Kai-shek, who stubbornly resisted "Vinegar Joe's" superiority. Then General George Marshall spent a year in China, insisting that Chiang Kai-shek commit political suicide, as Jan Masaryk committed both spiritual and physical suicide. George Marshall insisted upon Chiang Kai-shek's becoming a partner of the Chinese Communists and therefore an ally of Soviet Russia.

It was the madness of Yalta and Potsdam and the Morgenthau Plan at work. It would have reduced China immediately to the position of Poland and Rumania.

Again Chiang Kai-shek proved to be stubborn. His obstinacy apparently offended George Marshall to the quick, for Marshall, even after he became Secretary of State and had his own troubles with the Russians, continued to be an enemy of China. His reasoning is difficult to follow, for should all Chinese, the whole 450,000,000 of them, be corrupt, the measure of their worth must be whether we need them as an ally or whether it is better for the United States to add them to Russia's teeming millions.

Apparenly we assumed that the latter course is preferable, for after Yalta, the United States refused to aid China effectively; in fact, under the Marshall Plan for China, the United States disarmed the Chinese Nationalist Army so that it could more readily be beaten by the Chinese Communists—pawns in a world-wide Russian imperialism.

Although the United States did all the fighting in the Far Eastern war, the Rusians coming in on the kill at the very end for six days only, we made it possible for the Russians to capture the stockpiles of the Japanese Kuantung Army—the best equipped in all Japan. The Russians gave those arms to their Chinese Communist allies so that they could more effectively fight Chiang Kai-shek.

This one of the least believable stories in history. Researchers of the future will ask themselves how it could possibly happen. At the Cairo Conference, Franklin D. Roosevelt and Winston Churchill signed a declaration jointly with Chiang Kai-shek agreeing to restore to whatever country despoiled, whatever Japan had taken of territory or people. At Yalta subsequently they agreed to give to Soviet Russia domination over the means of communications and the economic life of Manchuria.

It was an absolute betrayal of a hard-fighting ally. It was a renunciation of a century of American policy. It was a breach of faith.

And now comes the pay-off. While the Russians are taking it easy at Berlin, they are moving fast into Manchuria. Through their allies, the Chinese Communist armies, they are conquering Manchuria—an area as large as Germany and France put together—a country rich in agricultural and mineral products. This they will integrate with Northern Korea, producing, in time, a new country. Already Mongolia is part of the Soviet federation of nations.

Soon Manchuria will be added to that group and it will provide Soviet Russia with a warm water port on the Pacific, Dairen, from which they can send their schnorkel submarines to blow up our shipping on the Pacific.

Out of Manchuria, they will set out to conquer first the Yellow River Valley and then the Yangtze River Valley. The Nationalist Government will undoubtedly retreat to Canton, which it can hold. But what becomes of China as an aid to the United States in war? George Marshall will have to answer that question some day. He will have to explain his concept of American policy in Asia.

Meanwhile, the Russians, with his aid, have won a territory for which Japan fought three wars at great cost—one against China, one against Russia, and the last one against the United States, Great Britain and China.

Did the United States, for more than 40 years, oppose the conquest of Manchuria by Russia and Japan, only to hand it to Russia as a gift because General Stilwell and General Marshall did not like Chiang Kai-shek?

Shirley Lee Wagner Is Bride Of Steve Good

Former Resident Wed In Akron

Miss Helen Wagner, 118 Decatur Street, announces the marriage of her niece, Miss Shirley Lee Wagner, daughter of Mrs. Andrew Wilmoth, Barberton, O., formerly of Cumberland, to Steve Good, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael Good, Clymer, Pa.

The wedding ceremony was solemnized October 9 in the parsonage of St. John's Lutheran Church, Akron, O., by Rev. William Denton. Their attendants were Mr. and Mrs. John Good, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom.

The bride, who resided with her aunt, lived in Cumberland all her life and attended Allegany High School until two years ago when she moved to Barberton, resumed her studies and graduated in June from Barberton High School. She is employed as assistant bookkeeper for F. W. Woolworth Company, Barberton.

She was attired in a gray street length dress with which she wore black accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

The bridegroom is employed by Siberling Rubber Works, Barberton, and with his bride is residing at 848 West Hopocan Avenue, Barberton.

Girl Scouts Plan Song Fest Nov. 5, Programs, Rites

A song fest, two radio programs and a ceremony when the first Juliette Low Memorial stamp is sold will highlight the general meetings of the local Girl Scouts in observing Girl Scout Week October 31-November 6. Individual troops will have their activities throughout the week.

The story of the life of Juliette Low will be given in "Portrait of a Woman" in a half hour program over WTBO following the football game Saturday. Mrs. Althea N. Correll is to direct the program with Mrs. Seth Bowen assisting.

Adults, senior and intermediate scouts taking part will be Mrs. Milton Beneman as Juliette Low when an adult; Leslie Millenson, Juliette Low as a girl; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thornton, Lord and Lady Baden-Powell; Mrs. James Casserly, Anne Hyde Choate; William Evans, William Low; Mrs. Bowen, Delores Lisanti, Phyllis Lydinger, Janet Stegmaier, Mary Puderbaugh, Dolores Mulligan, Barbara Hedrick and Barbara Zollner.

A brownie with a leader and adult will give the second program on WCUM sometime the first week of November.

An informal song fest will be held November 5 from 6:30 until 8:30 at the Girl Scoct house; weather permitting, it will be held on the grounds with a camp fire program, and is for all Girl Scouts. Mrs. Bowen will direct the singing, which is marking both Girl Scout Week and Music Week. Final plans will be formulated at the committee meeting at 8 tonight.

The new stamp issued by the Government commemorates the founding of Girl Scouts in 1912 and has a picture of Juliette Low and scenes from her life. All Girl Scouts in town will be invited to take part in the ceremony when the commissioner, Mrs. J. Gordon Mitchell, purchases the first one.

In 1896 there were only four autos in this country. It must have been as hard to get a new one then as it is now.

BRANT-WEICHT BRIDAL PARTY—Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Clifton Brant, Jr., are shown with their attendants as they left Trinity Methodist Church following their marriage October 23. The bride, the former Miss Vera Weicht, Romney, is the daughter of Robert E. Weicht, Harrisburg, Pa., the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Clifton Brant, Sr., 208 Grand Avenue. Miss Arietta Wolford, Romney, was the bride's maid of honor and Robert Smith, city, served as Mr. Brant's best man.

Carolyn Yantorno Names Attendant; Honored At Party

Miss Carolyn J. Yantorna has selected her sister, Miss Rosalie Yantorno, as her maid of honor and only attendant for her marriage to Robert Joseph Welsh, November 6. John Welsh will be his brother's best man and James Donahue and Michael Yantorno, Jr., are to be the ushers.

The ceremony is to be solemnized in SS. Peter and Paul Catholic Church at 10 a. m., and will be followed by a breakfast and wedding reception at Ali Ghan Country Club.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Yantorno, Sr., 105 North Johnson Street, and her fiance is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John E. Welsh.

Miss Yantorno attended Ursuline Academy and was graduated from Allegany High School and Catherman's Business School. She is employed as secretary to David and Harry Kauffman.

Mr. Welsh, a graduate of Fort Hill High School, served three and one-half years as a master sergeant and is employed by the Tri-State Electrical Supply Company.

A miscellaneous bridal shower was given in compliment to Miss Yantorno by Mrs. Emiline Yantorno and Miss Rosalie Yantorno at the latter's home, Johnson Street, recently. A pink and white color scheme was carried out in a pink rosebud table cloth and pink box in which the gifts were arranged. Guests were Mrs. Sophie Trozzo, Mrs. Nellie DeLuca, Mrs. Mary McCullough, Mrs. Warner Dicken, Mrs. Edward Belfoure, Mrs. Joseph Belfoure, Mrs. Dom Cimminio, Mrs. Helen Santelli, Mrs. Harry Cioni, Mrs. Raymond Kammauf, Mrs. Bernard Gillum, Mrs. James Donahue, Mrs. Harold Skidmore, Mrs. Edward Mullen, Mrs. Raymond Gray, Mrs. Glenn Paige, Miss Camilla Athey, Miss Eleanor Walsh, Miss Angela Mula and Miss Dorothy Landis.

A rehearsal party will be held at the home of the bride November 5.

Waneta Johnson Becomes Bride Of D. R. Chiccarella

Rev. W. R. Keefe Performs Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johnson, Artemas, Pa., announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Waneta Grace Johnson, to Donald Roxie Chiccarella, son of Mrs. Ivy Chiccarella, Flintstone.

The double ring ceremony was solemnized October 19 at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Johnson, 647 Sedgwick Street, with Rev. W. Randolph Keefe, pastor of Grace Baptist Church, officiating. Miss Mary Lou Chiccarella, sister of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor and Harry E. Johnson, brother of the bride, served as best man.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a gray suit with which she wore navy blue accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds. Her attendant wore a green suit with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

Mrs. Chiccarella is a graduate of Everett High School, class of 1948. Mr. Chiccarella also attended Everett High School, served in the Air Force and is employed by the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company.

Following the ceremony a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, after which the couple left for a wedding trip through Virginia. Upon their return they will reside at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

Half-Hearted Pull Ahead Measures Fail To Keep Market From Slump

NEW YORK, Oct. 27—(AP)—The stock market operated in lower price territory today despite half-hearted attempts to pull ahead.

Volume dropped below 1,000,000 shares for the first full session in 10 days. Turnover of 970,000 shares compared with 1,140,000 Tuesday.

Offerings centered on the steel group, largely because a widespread rumor failed to pan out. Many of Wall Street's experts had figured that U. S. Steel Corp. would come out with a special dividend after the directors' meeting late Tuesday.

Big Steel's board, though, voted only the usual $1.25 quarterly payment. Steel common dropped on the West Coast following the news but it was not until this morning that the New York market had its say.

The stock opened 1¼ points lower on an initial sale of 5,000 shares. The loss widened to more than two points at one time but the issue closed 1⅞ lower at 84⅜.

Great Northern preferred jumped 2½ to 47½ on word of a boosted dividend and helped to steady the balance of the rail group. Most rails, though, closed fractionally lower including Illinois Central at 37½, Union Pacific 92½, Baltimore & Ohio 14, and Southern Pacific 60.

In the textile section Wyandotte Worsted replied to an extra dividend with a gain of 1¾ at 11¾, a shade under the year's top.

An extra and an increased regular dividend by Sears Roebuck, on the other hand, lifted the stock only three-eighths at 41½.

Decca Records stepped ahead 1⅛ to 10¼. A frequent performer on the ticker tape, the stock apparently responded to well-founded reports that representatives of record companies and of James C. Petrillo's Musicians Union (AFL) had held an unannounced meeting. The meeting evidently encouraged hopes that Petrillo would raise his ban on new recordings.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks dipped .2 of one point to 70.6, the second average loss this week. Of the 1,023 issues which appeared on the tape, 522 declined while 259 advanced.

In the curb gains appeared for Cities Service, Creole Petroleum, Fairchild Camera, Northrop Aircraft, and Pennroad. Lower were Atlas Plywood, Barium Steel, Consolidated Mining, Electric Bond & Share, Kaiser-Frazer, and Pantepec Oil. Volume of 210,000 shares compared with 250,000 yesterday.

Rails led a slow retreat in the bond market, but price changes were slight.

U. S. Government bonds were unchanged to up one thirty-second of a point.

Sales totaled $3,130,000, compared with yesterday's $3,963,000.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

Double Enjoyment

When a writer sees something that has impressed him, and then writes about it, he gains double enjoyment. In the case of the poet who pens an immortal sentiment, not only is his enjoyment doubled, but he shares it with millions. Thus does the artist pave his soul with beauty.

No matter how much we may enjoy anything, we are bound to enjoy it doubly by having someone to enjoy it with us. Also our enjoyment is usually greatly increased with each new experience. Our first view of a notable place leaves many a blank page in our memory that is later filled upon a second or following visit.

The enjoyment that I have in the reading of a fine book is increased every time I tell someone about it, and I believe that this is the experience of nearly everyone. I recall the enthusiasm with which I was first told of the writings of Lafcadio Hearn. I bought two of his books of lectures to students—and was so taken with them that I have since collected every interesting book and item about this unusual writer that I could discover.

It's this double enjoyment that gives continual life to everything worth while. Things without potential enjoyment die early

A large part of our lives is devoted to this giving of enjoyment—and doubling it. The writer, actor, artist, each in his turn, endeavors to create it, and when he does he is happy, for that is the return on his artistic investment. Many times did I listen to the beautiful tenor voice of the late John McCormick—and how he loved to sing—but I often thought that he enjoyed as much the appreciation of his hearers, both exchanging their enjoyment.

Life wouldn't mean much without this double enjoyment. It is the cream of hardship! But the dividends are worth all the cost of the investment. It sometimes takes years for some people to realize that the shortest route to enjoyment and happiness is by way of sharing it first of all.

Step out with Brand-New Fireball Power in your old Buick

THIS is a brand-new Buick engine. It's fresh from the factory—straight from the same assembly line where the engines in 1948 Buick cars are built.

If you'd like to boss it around—mister, that's easy, if you have any Buick built since 1937.

All we need to do is take out your old engine —and put this one in.

Then you can feel the thrill of a brand-new Fireball engine. You can enjoy all the pep, power and performance that you'd get if you had a 1948 car.

It's spick and span, from head to pan, with all the features that make today's Buick engine the pacesetter of the power parade.

And it can be yours in less than two days. Look at the list of what you get—the most complete power package ever. There's a brand-new ignition system—brand-new clutch, pistons, pins, rings, valves—even the water pump.

We can make this offer because engine output has outstripped new-car production at the factory. The cost? Much less than you think, although it varies a bit from model to model.

Come in today for detailed figures on bringing your old Buick right up to date on power.

85 Per Cent Of Year's Levies Received By City

As of September 30, 85 per cent of the total 1948-1949 levy has been collected and $31,694.52 has been received in excess collections by the city, according to City Auditor Arthur B. Gibson.

The report shows that of the total levy of $1,262,930, the sum of $1,081,868.43 or 85.66 per cent has been collected.

The report reveals that 85 per cent of the 1948-49 tax levy has also been collected. Levied was $927,400 of which $787,855.06 has been received. The uncollected balance is $139,544.94.

Surpluses Explained

The surpluses are shown in the general licenses, state gasoline and automobile tax, and state income accounts.

In the license account, $52,000 was levied and collections total $61,661.90, a surplus of $9,661.90. The gas and auto tax levy was $36,000 with collections totaling $42,096.35, a surplus of $6,096.35. A surplus of $15,936.27 cents in the state income tax fund resulted from a levy of $20,000 and collections of $35,936.27.

Expenditures for the first six months of the 15-month levying epriod have been slightly more than 40 per cent, Gibson's report shows. Appropriated was $1,013,066.55 and expenditures for the period are listed as $407,879.45.

One appropriation, the "Contingent Fund" is overdrawn by $2,782.14 but is explained by the fact that an advance was made for the flood protection project which will subsequently be charged to the Flood Bond Fund established recently. The "Contingent Fund" had an appropriation of $10,541.45 and expenditures are listed as $13,323.59.

Debt Service Separate

Figured in the levy but not included in the 40 per cent computation of expenditures is the debt service which includes, coupon and serial bonds and the sinking fund.

Of the $107,528.25 appropriated for the coupon bonds, $55,000 has been expended leaving a balance of $52,528.25. Serial bonds were appropriated $98,000 of which $55,000 has been expended leaving a balance of $43,000. The Sinking Fund has an appropriation of $44,335.

The balance to be spent excluding the debt service, is $607,969.24. Including debt service, the balance shows $703,497.49.

Retired Teachers Support Proposed State Pension Bill

The pension legislation to be presented to the Maryland General Assembly for consideration should benefit 44 Allegany County retired school teachers according to O. B. Boughton, president of the Allegany County Retired Teachers' Association.

When the next legislatiye session opens in January, the State Association of Retired Teachers will ask that favorable legislation granting a permanent livable pension be passed, Miss Mary Ellen Logan, Baltimore, state head, reports. She has not revealed the exact amount of the request.

As early as 1904, Miss Logan explained, the state assumed to a degree the financial care of its retired teachers by granting an annual pension of $200 to needy teachers who had taught 25 years, were 60 years of age, physically incapacitated, and without other means of support. In 1920 the annual pension was raised to $400 obtainable under the same conditions. That amount remains the same today, $33.33 monthly.

In 1927 the state established a retirement system which became the joint responsibility of the state and the teachers themselves.

Figures show that one-half the retired instructors would be as well or better off if they were on welfare, receiving $50 a month under the Federal Old Age Pension plan.

In 1945 the legislature approved a temporary increase in pensions of 20 per cent for those receiving less than $50 monthly and an increase of 10 per cent for those receiving from $50 to $100 monthly. In 1947 a further temporary plan was instituted. It expires July 1, 1949.

It is pointed out by Miss Logan that pension increases up to 30 per cent do not go far toward meeting a cost of living increase of 76 per cent.

In addition a special Allegany county act was passed in 1947. Under this legislation some former local teachers who received low amounts were benefitted.

40 And 8 To Aid City With Halloween Parade

Street Commissioner Edgar Reynolds has announced the 40 and 8, American Legion, will assist the city in staging its Halloween celebration Monday night.

Reynolds, who proposed the celebration as a means of providing wholesome entertainment for the youngsters and as a means of curbing rowdyism, is chairman of the event.

Members of the 40 and 8 who will assist are Charles O. O'Donnell, Wesley Abrams, Isador Kamens, Vincent Ingram, Claude Deal, Joseph Wolfe, Ralph Kelly, Samuel E. Graham, Thomas F. Conlon, Harry Bogler, Howard Spiker, Clyde Kuhns, Paul Weisenmiller, Mark Lazarus, Robert McMillan, Adolph Pogell, James Hersch, Clarence Eyre, William Teubner, Charles Smith and Benjamin Ryan.

Conlon will serve as parade marshal. Route of the line of march will be announced later. Marchers will form at the State Armory at 7 p. m., Monday, Reynolds said.

Prizes will be awarded. Reynolds said a number of men will be stationed in the crowds to give tickets to the outstanding wearers of costumes. Holders of tickets will report to the City Hall for prizes.

Mayor Commends Police Department

Mayor Thomas S. Post praised Chief of Police R. Emmett Flynn yesterday for his department's work in handling crowds at the 100th anniversary celebration of Rosenbaum's Inc., store.

A letter from Mayor Post read:

"In behalf of the Council members and the citizens generally and the officials and directors of Rosenbaum Brothers, Inc., I wish to take this opportunity to extend my congratulations to you and to the members of the Police Department of the City of Cumberland for the excellent work performed in preserving public safety and order on the occasion of the store's One Hundredth Anniversary.

"The absence of incidents of any kind is a tribute to your efficient public service."

Halloween Fire Danger Cited

Fire Chief John Brennan warned against the use of candles in Jack-o'-lanterns, flimsy costumes and bonfires in Halloween observances.

Chief Brennan pointed out that children should use flashlights, especially those whose reflector heads can be removed, for illuminating pumpkins. For further safety from fire at Halloween, he suggests:

Do not dress children in flimsy, lacy cotton or rayon costumes which are easily ignited; do not use flammable decorations for parties, or place lighted candles in windows, and explain the serious dangers of setting bonfires or playing pranks involving fire.

If housewives are in doubt about the safety of their children's cotton costumes, Chief Brennan said, the clothing can be flame-proofed easily by rinsing in a solution of nine ounces of borax, four ounces of boric acid and one gallon of warm water.

Chief Brennan explained that the fabirc should be well saturated, wrung out by hand and hung up to dry before use. This method is effective in stopping the spread of flames but it will not survive laundering, he said.

Crispin was the old name for shoemakers, given them from the fact that St. Crispin was their patron saint.

Four of the 15 will be elected at the regular meeting November 11 to serve for three-year terms

The nominees are Frank A. Ansel, E. Fred Avers, Frank V. Carpenter, David T. Davis, F. W. Eller, Thomas B. Finan, Harry N. Iles, Walter T. Kline, Henry A. Mackey, George M. Martin, Dr. C. L. Owens, Herbert Platt, Albert T. Tomsko, James T. White and John F. Workmeister.

Divorces Granted

Two divorces were granted in Circuit Court yesterday in the cases of Charles L. Park vs. Martha C. Park; and Bernadette Willis and James H. Willis.

Board 29 to Send Six Men For Exams

Six men from Cumberland Draft Board 29 are scheduled for pre-induction examinations at the Army Recruiting office Friday, according to First Lt. George J. Gocke, commanding officer.

He also announced two 18-year-olds enlisting for one year. James M. Northcraft, 216 North Mechanic Street, will go to the Army of the United States and Alvin F. Drew, 539 Furnace Street, has joined the Air Force of the United States.

Valentine F. Fiorita, Frostburg, has enlisted in the Army for two years. Recent three year enlistments include Stanley Diggs, Suffolk, Va.; Donald E. Portmess, 226 Grand Avenue, and Walter J. Spanglar, Hyndman.

Equity Suits Filed

Three bills of complaint have been docketed in Circuit Court as follows: Gladys May Gordon vs. Benjamin H. Gordon, Jr., Leila Ruth Robertson vs. Oren Athey Robertson, and Emma L. Williams vs. Clarence H. Williams.

The home in which Kit Carson lived is still standing at Taos, N.M., the place where he is buried.

Wing Scout Patrol Takes First Aid

A standard First Aid Class was begun Monday night by the senior patrol of Girl Scout Troop No 17, Kingsley Methodist Church, according to H. Lee Silcox, chairman of the First Aid Committee of Allegany County Chapter of the Red Cross.

This course is a prerequisite to completing the Wing Scout training the senior patrol has been taking. Eleven Scouts are enrolled in the 18-hour class to be given every Monday from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. by Red Cross Instructor Virginia DeVault.

Miss Helen Campbell is troop leader.

Carloads Increase

Carloads handled on the B. and O. Railroad during last week showed a slight increase over the previous week's total, but a decrease under the same week of last year.

Business Women Present Skit

An original skit, emphasizing the importance of voting, was presented at a dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club Tuesday night at Central YMCA.

The cast included Miss Anna Agress, Miss Elizabeth Carroll, Miss Helen Beck and Miss Betsy Ross Rankin. Miss Rankin and Mrs. Katherine Stangel, chairman of the legislative committee, were co-authors of the skit.

Mrs. Karl Perry, chairman of the education and vocations committee, announced that her group will hold a rummage sale at Central Methodist Church on Friday, November 12, at 7 p. m. Miss Mary Louise Robertson is general chairman of the sale.

Mrs. Perry also requested members to bring light fiction books to the next meeting of the club November 9, for presentation to the School of Nuring libraries at Allegany and Memorial Hospitals.

Miss Mary Walsh, chairman of the international relations committee, will be in charge of the program at the November 9 meeting.

Miss Orpha-Bonita Pritchard, president, presided at last night's meeting. Seven of the new members attended, including Dr. Hilda Jane Walters, Mrs. Stella Twigg, Mrs. Morris Rosenbaum, Miss Doris Twigg, Miss Ann Fisher, Mrs. Lelah B. Trail and Mrs. Beulah Moody.

"If I survive I'll make thee five," was engraved on an engagement ring intended for his fiancee by John Thomas, Bishop of Lincoln, who had been married four times by 1753.

Foutz Found Guilty On Assault Charge

Magistrate Frank A. Perdew ordered John Foutz, Midland, to pay costs totaling $7 after he was found guilty of slashing at his wife with a knife. He pleaded not guilty to the assualt charge.

His wife, Mrs. Dorothy Foutz, testified he arrived home about 5 a. m. October 24 from Frostburg, where he had gone to attend a movie the night before. An argument followed. During the dispute Foutz struck at her with a knife, she said.

Foutz stated he was using the knife to cut bread. He denied attempting to knife his wife and said the weapon apparently touched her arm when he handed her a cigarct.

Area Grain Featured At Hybrid Corn Show Here

Some of the best corn in the surrounding area is featured at a hybrid corn show in progress at the Southern States warehouse here.

Open to farmers, Future Farmers of America and 4-H Club members who used Southern States hybrid seed last spring, the show will be judged December 4 by an impartial local agricultural worker. An entry consists of three ears and must be placed on exhibit by November 22.

Southern States hybrid corn, along with blue, red and white ribbons, will be awarded winners in the show. First-place entries will compete in a district show in January. The cooperative is planning eight district exhibits throughout the six-state area of Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, West Virginia, Kentucky and northeastern Tennessee.

Hardy Group To Fight Telephone Rate Boost

MOOREFIELD, W. Va.—Members of the County-Wide Telephone Committee will go to Romney Friday to participate in the hearing before the Public Service Commission to determine whether the Central Telphone Company may raise the rates in this section.

H. Gus Muntzing, chairman, and a committee of the Moorefield Lions Club, will represent the county in the rate protest. Local organizations assert present service does not warrant an increase in phone rates and that the company is not serving the rural areas of the county.

Telephone Worker Is Stung By Insect

MOOREFIELD—Howard McDonald, Romney, a Central Telephone Company worker, was unconscious for several hours Tuesday as a result of a bee or wasp sting. McDonald was on a pole helping to install telephone cables in Moorefield when the insect stung him behind the ear.

He descended so rapidly from the pole that onlookers thought he had fallen and collapsed shortly after reaching the ground. He was treated by a physician and taken to his home in Romney where he regained consciousness four hours later.

Hardy Farmers To Hear Talk On Dairy Feeding

MOOREFIELD—County Agent S. L. Dodd announces a special Dairy Feeding Meeting will be held in Moorefield High School Friday at 7:30 p. m.

I. D. Porterfield, assistant extension dairy specialist of West Virginia University, will discuss most effective methods of feeding dairy cattle.

The earth's population is said to have doubled in the last century.

Hardy Poultry Lab To Be Built Soon

MOOREFIELD—The lot for the Pathological Diagnostic Laboratory near Rockingham Poultry Marketing Co-operative has been purchased by a group of 10 men interested in the Hardy poultry industry. They will borrow $5,000 and sign a joint note to secure funds for the construction of the laboratory.

The Department of Agriculture will lease the building until the legislature can appropriate funds to purchase the building.

J. O. Flinn and Walter Petit have been named trustees for the lot and proposed building and the title to the properey is in their names.

Construction of the laboratory will start immediately. The structure will be of concrete or cinder blocks and will be built so that it can be expanded.

Negotiations are being conducted with three veterinarians to direct the project.

Former Moorefield Girl Becomes Bride

MOOREFIELD—Miss Eva Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Anderson, Hagerstown, and Robert S. McNeill, son of Mrs. Nannie Bell McNeill and the late A. C. McNeill, Moorefield, were married in the Washington Square Methodsit Church, Hagerstown, October 23, at 4 p. m.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street length eggshell gown, trimmed with sequins and brown accessories. She carried a white Bible upon which were laid talisman roses. Mrs. Blaine Fitts, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and John McNeill acted as best man for his brother and Renick and Tom McNeill were ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception for out of town guests and close friends was held at the Anderson home.

Mr. and Mrs. McNeill went to Williamsburg, Va., on their bridal trip and will make their home at Willow Wall.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McNeill are graduates of Moorefield High School, class of 1943. Mrs. McNeill studied beauty culture after her graduation and has been associated with her sister in a shop in Arlington, Va. McNeill spent three years in the Navy and is now farming and raising chickens at Willow Wall ancestral home of the McNeills.

It is a mistake to believe there is just one state that has a monopoly on the atomic bomb.—Andrei Vishinsky, Soviet chief delegate to the U. N.

Hardy Schools, Banks To Close Election Day

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Want To Join Our Club?

Newcomers to our town are puzzled when they hear talk of "The Barbecue Club." Want to know who can join, and what the purpose is.

Well, the answer is: any one can join who's neighborly inclined. The purpose is simply to enjoy good food, good beer and ale, good conversation—all towards getting to know one another better.

Every other Saturday, at one farm or another, the pit is dug, and the fire started. And by sundown, neighbors from miles around have come together—the women contributing cakes, pies, and coffee, the men contributing the meat for barbecuing, and the beer or ale.

From where I sit, it's this simple wholesome side of country life in America—its spirit of good-fellowship—that makes for tolerance and better understanding between neighbors.

As I say, Neighbor, any one can join up! So come along a week from this Saturday.

PRACTICAL DEMOCRACY—Students at Allegany High School "elected" Harry S. Truman as president of the United States in a mock election held at the school Monday. Truman polled 709 votes in the student balloting, while Thomas E. Dewey received a total of 575 votes for runner-up candidate. Thurmond received 27 votes for third choice; Wallace, 20 for fourth, and Thomas, 8 for fifth place. J. Glenn Beall, Allegany County candidate for re-election in the Sixth Congressional District, won over F. Byrne Austin, 609 to 583. The picture shows Nancy Largent seated at the ballot box, watching Don Jewell cast his ballot. Seated are Hilda Stump, Earl Bruce, Della Fulton and Wayne Grove, election officials. Standing in line waiting to vote are Shirley Martin, Gary Screen, Elizabeth Lackard, Richard Wade, Barbara Kelley and Glendon Kline.

Joseph Sleeman Weds Mary Angela Kienhofer

The marriage of Miss Angela Kienhofer, daughter of Mrs. Nellie Kienhofer, 714 Columbia Avenue, and the late John F. Kienhofer, to Joseph B. Sleeman, son of Mrs. Thomas Sleeman, Frostburg, and the late Thomas Sleeman, was performed Monday in SS. Peter and Paul Catholic Church by Rev. John T. Sleeman, pastor of St. Bernard's Church, Baltimore, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. James Cordry was matron of honor and Miss Mary McGann, Midland, was bridesmaid. Joan Kienhofer and Dolores Ann Cordry were flower girls for their aunt. William Bowman, Laurel, served as best man.

The bride wore a gown of white net and satin; her matron of honor aqua satin and the bridesmaid rose-topaz satin. The flower girls were in pink net frocks.

The bride graduated from Allegany High School and the bridegroom from LaSalle. Both are employed at the Celanese.

A breakfast was served at Taberna Montium and a reception held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Kienhofer, Columbia Street, during the afternoon.

Plan All Day Bazaar

The Ladies Aid Society of Potomac Park Evangelical U. B. Church will sponsor an all day bazaar November 10 at the home of Mrs. Charles Grove. Both lunch and supper will be served and a business meeting will be held at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Horace Mills is chairman of the lunch and supper committee; Mrs. Fred Lehman, sewing and fancy work, and Mrs. D. I. DeWitt, baked goods.

Talent Bazaar Planned

The Woman's Association of the First Presbyterian Church will sponsor a talent sale bazaar for the benefit of the carpet fund. It will be held from noon until 9 p. m. December 3. Each member is asked to contribute something for which she has a special talent.

Mrs. J. Russell Cook is general chairman with Mrs. Lester Martin co-chairman and in charge of publicity. Mrs. Porter D. Collins and Mrs. S. Hodge Smith are in charge of baked goods and handiwork; Mrs. I. R. Likens and Mrs. John McBee, white elephant exchenge; Mrs. William A. Eisenberger and Mrs. Margaret Upham, used books; and Mrs. Adolph Blunk, miscellaneous articles.

PROVE CAMEL MILDNESS FOR YOURSELF!

● In a recent test, hundreds of men and women all across the country smoked Camels—and only Camels—an average of one to two packages a day—for 30 consecutive days. Each week their throats were examined by noted throat specialists—a total of 2470 examinations—and these doctors found not one single case of throat irritation due to smoking Camels.

Three Area Women Apply For Services

One woman with prior service and two new recruits applied for duty with the WAC and WAF yesterday when WAF S-Sgt. Marian C. Luipersbeck visited the local Army recruiting office.

Miss Catherine McGee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McGee, who was discharged from the Women's Army Corps in 1945 as a private first class, had applied for admission to the WAF.

Cousins from Barton passed their preliminary WAC tests yesterday. They are Miss Isabel Claudine Warnick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Warnick, and Miss Mary Florence Warnick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Warnick.

Sgt. Liupersbeck said she and Lt. Sally Coulter of the Baltimore office will probably be in Cumberland November 9. Processing will probably have been finished on the applications of several area women by then she added.

Enlistees will not report until at least two weeks after receiving orders.

Cresaptown Auxiliary Plans Holiday Event

Cresaptown Chapter No. 209, American Legion Auxiliary, made plans at their regular meeting last night for the annual Community Christmas Party for children of the community, according to Dorothy Bowman, president. The party will include a motion picture show and other features. The party last year attracted 399 children.

The Chapter also planned to purchase draperies for the Legion Post Club rooms.

Several members of the Chapter will accompany Mrs. Edna Hounshell, past president of the Chapter to Baltimore Friday where she will be installed as vice president of the State Department, representing Mountain District.

Potomac Edison System Wins Award In National Fleet Safety Contest

Competing against 49 fleets, the Potomac Edison System for the second time in recent years took first place in the Passenger Car Group of the Eastern Area Division in the 17th National Fleet Safety Contest.

The PE system also placed second in Group One of the Public Utility Division, where it competed with 108 fleets that finished the contest without an accident. It was PE's lower milage rate that placed it second.

In the Passenger Car Group the Western Maryland fleet, records showed that PE covered 1,401,000 miles with no accidents. Their nearest competitor reported one accident in 840,000 miles.

In the Public Utility Division, PE was topped by a fleet that recorded 2,182,000 accident free miles while the Potomac Edison System showed 1,401,000 miles without an accident. Awards were based on the least number of accidents per 100,000 miles driven.

The company received a plaque in recognition of employe safe driving records at the National Safety Congress held in Chicago October 21.

R. Paul Smith, president of PE said, "I would like to repeat the statement I made in 1946 when our company won the turck safety division—Most proudly do I look upon our organization and extend sincere congratulations to our employes for the national recognition that we have received x x x."

North End Group To Have Parade, Treat

Mrs. Timothy Miller, 419 Holland Street, is a patient in Memorial Hospital.

Samuel Albright, Altoona, Pa., was a guest this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Allan Weatherholt, 419 Fairmont Lane.

Cars Damaged In Garage Fire

Three cars were badly damaged in a garage fire early yesterday morning. The garage, located at the George Babb, 22 Orchard Street, caught fire at about 4:45 a. m. The fire was confined to the garage, but apartments in the same building were damaged slightly by smoke.

George Hoblitzell, 221 Carroll Street, of West Side Fire Company, was treated at Memorial Hospital for burns on the right hand sustained while he was fighting the fire.

Both West Side and Central companies answered the call. The origin of the blaze was not determined.

mittee, party office holders, and others prominent in Democratic circles, along with a number of members and officers of the newly organized club.

John W. Edelman, Washington representative of the Textile Workers Union of America, told of labor's part in the campaign and declared labor will take a more prominent part in politics in the years to come.

Edelman urged the support of Austin and the Democratic ticket because, he said, "the average citizen has made more economic and social gains under the Democratic administration than any other. These gains must be preserved and the 80th Republican Congress has shown by their record that it believes in and will support a program for capital and against labor."

John Estes, PAC chairman of Local 1874, TWUA, this city also spoke briefly and said Labor in this county is supporting Austin, Truman and Barkley.

The rally, which included a turkey dinner, followed a tour by a caravan throughout the county, with rallies held in all the principal towns of the county.

The Cumberland unit was first among 26 divisions in West Virginia, Virginia and Maryland. Although the resting place of the awards has not been definitely decided, they probably will be put in the enlisted men's lounge.

During the drill, visitors were shown through the classrooms and shops and two Navy films, "Pearl Harbor — Navy Version" and "Operation Crossroads, Bikini Atom Bomb Test," were shown.

Following the presentation, 70 couples attended a dance in the drill hall. The Navy Mothers Club presided at refreshment tables.

Miss Shires To Speak At Education Meeting

Miss Dorothy Shires, this city, will be a group leader when the Association for Childhood Education holds its regional conference for the Southeastern area of the North Atlantic Convention Saturday in Eastern High School, Baltimore.

Miss Shires, formerly a teacher in Allegany County Schools, is now a member of the Maryland State Department of Education. Her topic at the meeting will be "Early Childhood Education — Its Significance and the Skills of Human Relationship."

Allegany County teachers planning to attend the conference include Miss Mary Meyers, president of the Allegany County branch of the association, Miss Nellie Thomas, Mrs. Louise Footen, Miss Hazel Inskeep, Miss Winifred Green, supervisor, and Miss Mae Meese.

KEEPING UP WITH

HOLLYWOOD

By LOUELLA PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 27—(INS)—Mrs. Al Jolson, the former Erle Galbraith, is a very attractive young woman, and her character in "Jolson Sings Again" calls for an actress of youth and beauty. Well, I think Harry Cohn has found her counterpart in Barbara Hale, who signed today to play opposite Larry Parks. She signed a long term contract with Columbia.

Errol Flynn

Barbara was formerly under contract to RKO, and left that studio with her husband, Bill Williams, who is now at MGM.

The new Mrs. Jolson shares with Al a home in Encino where they are very happy. And, speaking of Al, he is the most amazing man I know. He sang at the Friars Frolic Saturday with all the vigor of the Al Jolson I knew—well, I wont' tell you how long ago.

Tonight Gene Kelly and his wife, Betsy Blair, plane out to join Montgomery Clift in New York. All three are headed for a conference in Paris, where Betsy and Clift will discuss with Michele Verheim the possibility of making a picture in France.

Verheim has the film rights to Alice Bernstein's "Miss Condon", and if Clint and Betsy can make financial arrangements whereby they can get sufficient francs or receive American dollars, they'll accept the offer.

This will be a disappointment to the Hollywood producers who want Montgomery Clift. I hope his decision is wise. Making movies in France these days is a difficult undertaking.

Mervyn Le Roy is as excited as a 10-year-old over a youngster he saw on television whose first name is Le Roy. Merv says the name has nothing to do with his decision to test the boy who really has talent.

The yuongster, age 11, is Le Roy Miller. He's called "Texas", and he sings and dances and has real talent, so if he is as good as he is on television, he'll be given a contract.

Well, Merv discovered Lana Turner, and he oughta know.

It is hard for me to believe that Russia really wants our Hollywood films, even though Eric Johnston said in Washington that the Russians make only 87 pictures a year compared to the 400 features turned out in Hollywood, and hence want our movies.

The 87 pictures are all Soviet propaganda. Once we show our pictures in Russia, they naturally will want to release their 87 Communistic movies in this country. Personally I don't know why that opportunity should be given them. The money isn't enough to make such an exchange feasible or even justify the argument that our American way of life shown in our pictures might teach the Russians something. The Soviet government will never permit their people to be taught anything alien to its own way of thinking.

Chatter in Hollywood: The Racquet Club in Palm Springs is making book on the reconciliation of Errol Flynn and Nora Eddington. The other day, during a tennis match, Errol telephoned her three times while the match was on. He continued these calls all during that day and the next, and the next.

Nora loses no time in getting to the telephone, so the Racquet Club guests really believe she will again take the unpredictable gentleman back in her affections. You can never tell. However, she might be serious about the separation this time. She has held out for longer than ever before.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random:

Zsa Zsa Gabor Hilton underwent an emergency appendectomy at Cedars of Lebanon hospital earlier this week. Incidentally, her fiance, George Sanders, is considering doing a play when he finishes "Samson and Delilah."

Speaking of that opry, C. B. De Mille is having Hedy Lamarr cut Samson's (Vic Mature) locks with a knife instead of the traditional scissors.

Ann Sothern and Ronald Reagan were at a table for two at Slapsy Maxie's when Jane Wyman and Minny Sachs walked in and were seated right next to them. Tension was eased when Ronnie got up, went over and said hello to his ex-wife. She in turn, walked to Ronnie's table and greeted Ann Sothern.

Now it's Gloria De Haven who is occupying Peter Lawford's time and attention. Saw Peter at the Judge O'Connor cocktail party with his very distinguished looking father.

That's all today.

Eckhart Man Is Held In Burglary

Roy Felker, 24, Eckhart, is being held in County Jail on a charge of burglarizing the home of Ralph Bowser, also of Eckhart.

State Police said the prisoner has confessed to entering the house with a key and taking approximately $100 in cash and jewelry. He was arrested at his home by Trooper First Class William F. Baker, criminal investigator.

Trooper Baker said Felker gained admittance to the Bowser residence while the family was absent over the weekend. The burglary occurred some time Saturday night or early Sunday morning, he added.

Felker, Trooper Baker recalled, was arrested several years ago for breaking into the postoffice at Eckhart, and sentenced to five years in Lewisburg, Pa., Federal Penitentiary. He served 38 months and was released.

Police said Felker resided near the Bowser residence.

If You Can't Get Lad In Reasonable Time, Give Up

By NANCY MOTTRAM

You've set your heart on dating one particular lad, but you're getting nowhere fast. You don't have the problem of "the other girl" to tackle, any family difficulties about dating, and it's not just the fact that he's never asked you. It's more complicated. He's "girl shy," and you're completely at a loss to know what to do.

Nancy Mottram

One reason for a boy turning into a dyed in the wool woman-hater is a former romance that dealt a blow to his pride. It might be that a girl he once cared for brushed him off suddenly for someone else, or because she lost interest. And that sudden break might have made him wary of all females from that day on.

• — • — •

He doesn't turn and go the other way when you come into his view, but from his actions, you might just as well be part of the furniture. Once in a while, he mumbles hello, but you can't very well show him the best side of your personality if he never gives you a chance! And all your carefully planned accidental meetings outside of Ancient History haven't helped your friendship along, either. You can't ask him what the assignment is for Tuesday if he won't stop and speak.

Nothing seems to work, and you've decided about twenty times that it's no use. Still, you refuse to give up. His indifference makes him much more attractive and you're bound and determined to succeed. It looks as though he'll never break the ice and suggest a date for the Junior Class play or the Saturday night movie. But it's not up to you to catch up to him on the way to the drugstore after school and suggest it, either.

• — • — •

So, what can you do? He can't stay in this frame of mind forever, and he might as well stop now according to your way of thinking. And about the only way you can wangle a date with him is to ask him to that old stand-by: the girl-invites-boy party or dance. If luck is with you, and he accepts, your troubles may be over for good. You'll be able to carry on a long conversation with him, find out what his interests are and discover what he's like. That will start a friendship, but don't show that he means more to you, or he's likely to vanish from your life altogether. And you want to have dates—but with him doing all the inviting.

If the plan doesn't work, and he doesn't accept your invitation, in a little while, try again. But should it begin to look like a hopeless cause, you'd be wise to give up the whole idea. You can't keep on wishing and hoping month after month, so if he just won't cooperate, let someone else take his place in your thoughts. It could be that you're not the one to bring him out of his shell.

If you have a school, family or friend problem, Nancy can help you. Letters are answered in this column.

Get Welcome Relief From Stomach Gas, Sour Food Taste

Do you feel bloated and miserable after every meal? If so, here is how you may rid yourself of this nervous distress. Thousands have found it the way to be well, cheerful and happy again.

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

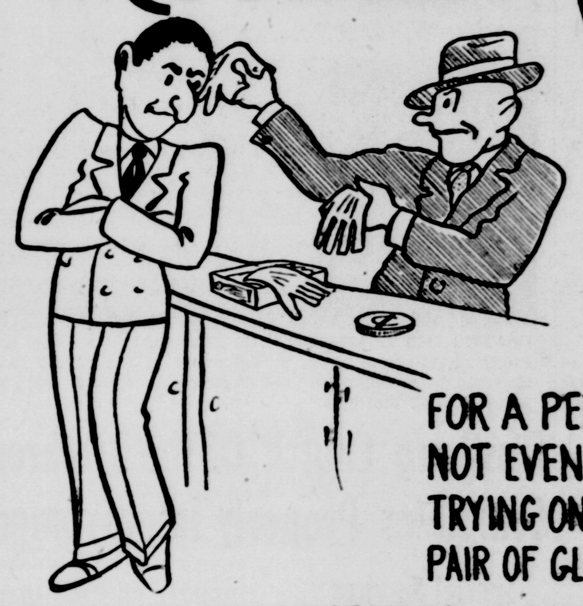

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with overdoses of soda and other alkalizers to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

Moorefield Lions Plan Halloween Parade Monday

Judges Selected For Annual Event

MOOREFIELD — The Moorefield Lions Club will hold its annual halloween parade Monday night, November 1, and will present 14 prizes to contestants in the parade.

Oscar H. Bean, parade chairman, said the parade will form on Main Street at the American Legion Home at 6:45 p. m. and will start at 7:30 p. m. The parade will march south on Main Street to Winchester Avenue and around that block back to Main.

Clyde Shanholtzer will have charge of the forming of the parade and George Kemp will act as grand marshall.

Judges will be Judge H. M. Calhoun, J. O. Flinn and John Chapman, for adults, and Miss Mae Gwen Matthews, Miss Mary Martin and Miss Edna Bauserman, for the children. Main Street will be roped off to traffic during the parade.

Other members of the committee are Chester Hiett, W. C. H. Poole, Clyde Shanholtzer, Stanley Hawse and George Kemp.

Prizes will be offered to bands and Mathias and Wardensville school bands have been invited to parade with Moorefield High School Band. Other prizes will be offered to the best Hill Billy group, most original group, most comical group, best looking couple, best Scout Troop and several prizes to children.

A special prize will be awarded to the best political candidate, either real, or imitation. Anyone in Hardy County may enter.

Keyser Rotarians To Be Guests Of Farm Bureau

KEYSER, W. Va.—Members of the Keyser Rotary Club will be guests at a dinner to be given at the Headsville Community Building today at 6:30 p. m. with the Mineral County Farm Bureau as hosts.

C. C. Anderson, assistant director of the Agricultural Extension Service, West Virginia University, Morgantown, will be the principal speaker. He has chosen for his topic "Rural-Urban relationship." The program has been arranged by C. I. Homan, president of the county Farm Bureau.

CHURCH IMPROVED—Rev. O. F. Bowman, first regular pastor of the Church of the Brethren, Frostburg, is shown above at the pulpit in the church building, the interior of which has been improved. A dedication and homecoming service will be held Sunday, October 31, to mark completion of the work.

Frostburg Church Of The Brethren Completes Property Improvements

Special Services Planned Sunday

FROSTBURG — The Church of the Brethren, located at the corner of Beall and Steyer Streets, will hold a rededication and homecoming service Sunday, October 31, marking the completion of a new vestibule, new Sunday School room and two new rest rooms.

The church auditorium and Sunday School room have been redecorated and an additional room has been added to the parsonage. The entire interior of the parsonage has been remodeled and decorated. The church property was purchased 10 years ago from Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

The rededication service will be held at 11 a. m., with Rev. Newton D. Cosner, Akron, O., a former pastor, delivering the sermon.

A program of music by the Junior and Senior choirs will be presented at the homecoming service at 2:30 p. m. Greetings from former pastors and congregational singing will also be a part of the afternoon service.

Improvements to the church property made since the property was purchased total $6,300.

First regular pastor of the congregation is Rev. O. F. Bowman, a native of Harrison, Va.

The altar brass is the gift of Mrs. Edward P. Madden, Chicago, Ill., as a memorial to her mother, Mrs. Sarah C. Seggie.

The altar scarves are the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Irwin.

The communion table is the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McFarland, and the church bulletins for one year are the gift of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Coleman.

Gas heaters for the new addition were given by Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Coleman and Mrs. Mildred Bell.

Grantsville FFA To Improve Swine

GRANTSVILLE — Grantsville Chapter of the FFA recently purchased a registered Berkshire male hog which will be available for a $3 breeding fee.

The Swine Improvement Association already has 15 sows and is well on the way toward a definite improvement of the swine in this area.

The local chapter has also purchased a cement mixer for the convenience of people in the community. The fee will be $1 for one day or $5 for one week.

Another interesting project has been the acre and half of hybrid seed corn planted this spring on a plot in the Finzel section. Approximately half of the corn has been husked, and a yield of 16 barrels has already been realized.

The chapter president, Donald Clotfelty, of the senior class, will represent the group at the Annual FFA Convention to be held in Kansas City, Mo., in November.

Cather Appointed To Keyser Post

KEYSER, W. Va.—Wilbur Scott Cather, 28-year-old former Potomac Edison serviceman from Winchester, Va., has been appointed service manager of the Potomac Light and Power Company here to replace E. Wade Thomas, who has accepted a position with the State Fire Marshall's Office in Charleston.

Cather joined the Northern Virginia Power Company in 1943 as a serviceman. Prior to that time he worked for a Winchester hardware concern, buying, stocking, and selling electrical equipment. Later he joined the Winchester Electric Service Company, where he spent several months in the motor repair department.

Two years after joining the Northern Virginia Power Company, Cather was transferred to Charles Town and was then reassigned to his original district of Winchester, where he remained until October 1 of this year.

Waites Run Bridge Contract Awarded

MOOREFIELD—Harman Brothers, Grafton, was awarded a $56,366.40 contract for the erection of a bridge across Waites Run near Wardensville. Work will start immediately.

Completion of State Route 55 in Virginia west of Strasburg was announced by the Virginia Highway Commission. All grading has been finished and surfacing completed on most of the highway.

Construction was started in 1942 but abandoned during the war. Work was resumed in November, 1946.

Rinard Brothers Attend Reunion

MT. SAVAGE—Walter E. Rinard, who operates the bus line between Mt. Savage and Cumberland, was reunited with his five brothers for the first time in 13 years at a family reunion in Charleston, W.Va., last week.

The reunion was held at the home of R. E. Rinard, Charleston. All of the brothers and sisters were present with the exception of the oldest, a sister, Mrs. J. T. Browning, 80, Morgantown, W.Va., who was unable to attend because of ill health.

One sister, Mrs. Maud Rinard Lakin, Coronada, Calif., made the trip to Charleston by plane. The other sister is Miss Minnie Rinard, Huntington, W.Va.

Besides Walter Rinard, other brothers attending the reunion were R. V. Rinard, Delware, O., an employ of the maintenance department of the Ohio State Roads Commission; Frank G. Rinard, Charleston; R. E. Rinard, also of Charleston; who is connected with the Elk Lumber Company; E. R. Rinard, Huntington, general manager of the Fire Adjustment Bureau of West Virginia; and C. A. Rinard, who has operated a jewelry store in Kentland, Ind., for 53 years.

The six brothers were born in Bedford County, Pa., and were educated in Pennsylvania and West Virginia schools.

They are the sons of the late Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Rinard of Bedford County. All are in good health and are active in business with the exception of Frank, of Charleston, who is a retired engineer of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Rinard were the parents of 10 children. Mr. Rinard, who died in 1925, was 81 years old, and Mrs. Rinard was in her 88th year when she died in 1933.

Photographic Makeup Is Demonstrated

R. P. Piperoux, noted amateur portrait photographer of New York City, gave a demonstration and lecture on photographic makeup at a meeting of the Cumberland Camera Club last night in Knights of Malta Hall, Prospect Square.

In the monthly black and white print contest held by the club, John R. King's "Evening Cruise" won first place. Mrs. Gladys King was second with a portrait titled "Charlotte," while the third place winner was R. R. Sitzler's "City Reflections."

Honorable mentions went to Miss Dorothy Willison's "Satire of the Sea"; J. B. Smith's "Spike Grass" and O. C. Dean's print, "Betty." S. H. Dooley judged the entries.

The winning prints will be displayed at Harvey's Jewelry Store, Baltimore Street.

The annual election of officers will be held at the November meeting, the date of which will be announced later. Charles S. Fields is chairman of the nominating committee.

A feature of that meeting will be a demonstration of lighting in color portrait photography, to be given by a representative of the Ansco Corporation, Binghamton, N. Y.

Coleman Is Fined On Traffic Charge

Michael E. Coleman, Springfield, W. Va., was fined $10 and costs last night after he pleaded guilty, at a hearing before Justice of the Peace C. A. Jewell, to a charge of failing to keep to the right of the center of the highway.

The charge was preferred Sunday by state police after the car Coleman was driving near Fort Ashby collided with a car driven by Police and Fire Commissioner William V. Keegan.

F. Byrne Austin Gives Talk In Westernport

Democratic leaders and workers heard F. Byrne Austin, candidate for Congress in the Sixth District, present his views on the record of the Republicans duing the last session of Congress, Monday at a rally in Burns Hall, Westernport.

James E. Kenny, Westernport, Allegany county Democratic campaign chairman, opened the meeting by introducing John Barnard, former judge of the juvenile court and former mayor of Westernport. Barnard introduced William C. Walsh, this city, former attorney general.

While not mentioning his Republican opponent, Rep. J. Glenn Beall by name, Austin outlined a number of things Beall could have accomplished during the term but never approached.

Walsh stressed the importance of getting out the vote in next Tuesday's election and declared that President Harry S. Truman should be re-elected. Walsh pointed especially to the better wage scales and business conditions under the Democratic administration.

Kenny predicted that the Democratic ticket would win on both the national and state tickets in Westernport.

Another in the series of Democratic rallies was held Sunday in Eckhart with David Kauffman, this city, vice-chairman of the party's campaign, presiding.

William L. Wilson, Jr., this city, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, was among the speakers.

Four Political Addresses Listed For Radio Tonight

By C. E. BUTTERFIELD

NEW YORK, Oct. 27—The Thin Man, who has been on and off the networks recently after quite a continous run, has a new schedule forthing for Thursday night. It will be MBS at 10 under the same sponsorship that is presenting this network's Saturday Nighter by Guy Lombardo.

The Thin Man, originally on CBS, spent the summer on NBC as a replacement. It still will have Les Tremayne and Claudia Morgan.

Policially broadcasting here is what the schedule is to propose for the night:

ABC, 8:30—Henry A. Wallace from New Work.

CBS, 9:00—Governor Thomas E. Dewey from Boston.

ABC, 10:00—Senator Alben W. Barkley, Representative Helen Douglas and Melvin Douglas.

MBS, 10:30—President Truman from New York.

Because of the political broadcast at 9 on CBS, the previously announced fifth performance by Agnes Moorehead of that eerie story, "Sorry, Wrong Number," has been put off to what the announcement describes as "a later date."

Victor Mature and Richard Widmark both are to read scrip for the Screen Guild's production of "Kiss of Death" on NBC at 10.

RADIO IN REVIEW

By JOHN CROSBY

The Hartmans On Video

As a Broadway show "Angel in the Wings," which closed last month, had two important assets, both named Hartman, and one serious liability—at least, it had become a liability by the time I got around to seeing it—a song called "Civilization" which contained that noted line "bongo bongo bongo."

John Crosby

The show catapulted the Hartmans into at least temporary financial security and the "bongo bongo bongo" song achieved momentary fame when an irate seaman shot a girl twice for playing it a solid hour on a Ninth Avenue jukebox.

Last Sunday "Angel in the Wings," billed as the first Broadway revue tailored exclusively for television, showed up on the Philco Television Playhouse (N.B.C. television network 9 p. m. E.S.T.) In the television production, Paul and Grace Hartman were displayed as magnanimously as is possible within the hour-long limits of the Philco playhouse and Miss Elaine Stritch, with more courage than common sense, even trotted out "bongo bongo bongo." (If any shots rang out they were drowned by Miss Stritch's stentorian rendition of the song and, if she was hit, she had the decency to collapse and die back stage. Nothing untoward happened out front.)

Considering that a hit revue is a rarity even on Broadway and a treat indeed on television, this one was a disappointment. The artistry of the Hartmans was seriously diminished by mechanical reproduction and my enjoyment was tempered considerably by the fact that I was seeing the show for the second time. Still, I felt something was missing, possibly camera technique. On the stage, in their famous breakfast couple skit, separate and distinctly different actions were going on at two parts of the stage at once—Grace Hartman reading her yogurt recipe at one end, Paul Hartman becoming violently ill at the other. The television cameras, however, switched back and forth in the closeups and, while the skit didn't miss fire entirely, these closeups cut the hilarity to about a quarter of the original.

The Hartmans also appeared to be facing the deadest audience in their experience which factor opens a field of unlimited speculation. The audience, I'm told, was composed of people who wrote in for tickets. I have an idea this audience was a radio audience in spirit, an audience accustomed to hearing humor and not to seeing it. The humor of Paul Hartman's magnificently dishevelled face seemed to elude these people entirely; they appeared to be waiting for the punchline, the old twisteroo. When it didn't come—Hartman, in fact, isn't very good with dialogue—they sat back on their hands, bewildered.

It's just posible that some reeducation of the national audience will have to be made by television. The movies, of course, have been available to all for some time but there haven't been any great pantomine artists in the general realm for years. The reintroduction of silence in comedy technique might be one of television's most valuable contributions to society. If this feat can be accomplished, the Hartmans could be one of television's brightest prospects, provided the motion picture industry doesn't grab them first.

"Angel in the Wings," incidentally, is the Philco playhouse's fourth television production and it looks from here like an auspicious addition to our Sunday nights. Philco led off shakily with an atrociously acted version of the Kaufman-Ferber play "Dinner at Eight," continued with "Rebecca" (which I didn't see) and last week came up with a competent rendition of "Counsellor-at-Law" with Paul Muni in his old stage role.

MIRROR Of Your MIND

By LAWRENCE GOULD
Consulting Psychologist

Can a mother permanently warp her child's mind?

Answer: Yes, says Dr. Jean A. Thompson of the Bureau of Child Guidance of the New York City Board of Education. The mental development of any child depends mainly on his mother's attitude toward him before he is old enough to go to school. Every child needs love, food, bodily comfort, freedom to take his own time in learning, a chance to explore his body and the world around him, and a sense of his own value. If his mother is harsh or unsympathetic toward his attempts to get these things, he will suffer ever after.

Does family bossing show a "strong character"?

Answer: Certainly not. The "domestic tyrant" (who may, of course, be a woman) suffers from a secret sense of weakness which makes him afraid he'll be unable to get what he wants unless he can force somebody to give it to him, and who therefore gets into a rage, based on unconscious panic, the moment that anyone seems to be trying to thwart his wishes or to disobey his orders. A really strong character can face refusal to comply with his desires calmly, because he knows he is capable of satisfying his own wishes if he has to.

Is anyone helping the deaf-blind?

Answer: Until lately there has been no organized attempt to help this "loneliest group of human beings on earth." As Miss Helen Keller, who herself is deaf as well as blind, says: "The blind who are taught can live happily in a world of sounds, and the deaf use their eyes instead of ears, but the deaf-blind have no substitute for sight or hearing." But Miss Keller's own life proves existence can be made worth while for people like her and the Helen Keller Committee for the Deaf-Blind, 13 West 16th St., New York, asks your support.

Georgia Tech Is Top Defensive Team In Nation

Whitney Martin's SPORTS TRAIL

NEW YORK, Oct. 27 (AP)—There will be one faded rose in the Rose Bowl New Year's Day. The Big Nine team, whichever it may be, long since has lost its bloom.

It is an odd situation, at that, which finds the Pacific Coast, with probably its best team in years, putting its champion in the bowl against what at best will be a second-place eleven from the midlands.

This is figuring of course, that California continues its impressive showing and that Michigan goes through undefeated in its Big Nine play. Or maybe that is too big a figure.

Anyway, according to the terms of the Pacific Coast-Big-Nine agreement any one Big Nine team cannot go to the bowl oftener than once every three years, and that automatically eliminates Michigan, which was there last Jan. 1. .. ..

The one out that the Big Nine has if it does not care to send a non-champion for the game will not be available for another year. It provides that, the conference, if it so desires, may select some independent team or member of another conferenc to sub for it the last two years of the five-year contract.

It is highly improbable the Big Nine would take advantage of that clause, unless for some reason the conference suddenly decided it had had enough of bowl games.

To begin with, the Big Nine, which prides itself on its rugged football, probably thinks its second-place or third-place club would be good enough to knock off anything the coast could produce, so why admit it didn't have an adequate representative by calling on outside help?

From a national interest standpoint, the game probably would take an added glamor if the eastern team was undefeated or champion of something or other. The Big Nine might nominate Notre Dame, or North Carolina, or Georgia Tech, for example, if those teams had clear records at the end of their seasons.

The Big Nine could do that next year, but not this year, and there's the rub. We have an idea the west coasters won't turn cartwheels over the prospect of their champion meeting anything but the best.

If California, say should go into the Rose Bowl Jan. 1 and whip the spots off Northwestern, or Minnesota, or whichever team the Big Nine sent, the Big Nine always would come back with: "Sure but our Michigan team is something else again."

That is, there would be little satisfaction for the Californians in licking a team which couldn't even win the championship in its own back yard.

Personally, we don't see why that once-every-three-years stipulation was made, anyway. We would be in favor of having the Big Nine champion go out there every year, even if it was the same team year after year. By splitting it up arbitarily to give other teams a chance they are putting a premium on mediocrity.

If the world series were operated under similar conditians the American league club might be meeting the second-place National League club, or vice versa.

Maybe if enough of a howl is raised on the coast the rule might be changed to allow Michigan to return Jan. 1. Not that Northwestern or Minnesota might not give a good account of itself, it's just that a little gloss is taken from the game in not having the best teams available.

CAN'T WIN FOR TYING-- WOFFORD COLLEGE GRID TEAM TIES 'EM ALL

SPARTANBURG, S. C., Oct. 27 (AP)—The Wofford College football team is fit to be tied—the undefeated Terriers have been just that in their five games this year.

They've done it scorelessly, by coming from behind and after establishing early leads — they still can't win for tying.

"It looks like we're destined for tie games and its getting pretty monotonous," is the morose observation of Coach Phil Dickens, former Tennessee back who is in his second year at the Terrier helm.

"It's the funniest thing I've ever seen," he growled. "So funny that it hurts.

"In fact, we're fit to be tied!"

The five game tying streak, believed to be a national record, may snap this week. The Terriers are heavy favorites to take the Newberry College Indians Saturday.

In all but one of their five contests to date have the Terriers been the underdogs — that one, a 6-6 opening tie with Hampden-Sydney, was a pre-game toss-up as well.

Two of the stalemates bobbed up when the Terriers came from behind in the final minute with touchdown passes thrown by Freshman Bob Starnes of Chester, S. C. — against Hampden-Sydney and against Catawba, 7-7.

The game with Northwestern Louisiana State was scoreless. Then the Terrier's star back, Sammy Sewell, made a breakaway touchdown run against Furman and passed the Terriers to a score against Davidson.

Wofford led in both those games. And in both, the opposition managed to grind out a touchdown and boot the extra point for 7-7 ties.

"Woody" Woodson Writes Praises His Teammates

Watch Ed Modzelewski Eddie Dyer Tells Story

By C. V. BURNS

Woodrow E. Woodson, Jr., of Romney, W. Va., whose strong right arm was instrumental in giving the Queen City Brewers the championship of the Bi-State Baseball League says that he feels indebted to the many fans and the sports writers who gave him the morale boosts that it takes to give a man confidence in himself.

The Brewers' pitching ace, who won 15 games and lost 6 during the past season, expressed these sentiments this week in a letter to Howard Northcraft, statistician and No. 1 rooter for Charley Doyle's club.

Writing from the University of Maryland, Woodson stated that he believes the psychology of making other teams think the Brewers were lucky had its effect also.

"They wanted to knock us all over the lot and consequently were swinging at bad pitches and trying to stretch base hits or hit the ball out of the park," he added.

"I think the unwarranted publicity given me made hitters think I was a little tougher than I actually happen to be.

"Toward the last of the season I started concentrating much more on the other team because with the ball club we had I didn't want to let any of the boys down. I knew I was capable of pitching better ball than I did in the first seven or eight games and I really wanted to win the championship because I thought we had the material with which to do it.

"The Amvets and Westvaco had better organized play than we did and that's one reason I think we were very fortunate in winning the playoffs. We started hustling when the chips were down. We really couldn't have won it if it hadn't been for the fine play of "Squires" Holsinger, Lou Baker, Hank and the rest of the boys who added their share of ability and helped us to finally emerge the victors.

"If at any time you see any of those fellows, express my sincere appreciation. As a pitcher I received the glory and I also could have gotten 'boos' if it hadn't been for their all-around defensive and offensive ability. Their play made me a so-called 'hero' and I think they should share the glory."

Woodson relates that he received four big thrills in baseball. They were:

1—When he hit a home run out of Griffith Stadium against Wilson College in the spring of 1938 or 1939.

2—When he walloped a home run off Hank Bell who was pitching for Frostburg Teachers. The game went 12 innings and Woodson had fanned 24 batters; then came the home run in the last of the 13th with a man on base. Bell struck out 19 in the same game.

3—When he played ball in the service with Mace Brown and Joe Beggs and touched Johnny Rigney for four hits in four times at bat.

4—When he got "Boob" Tysinger to swing at a bad pitch for the last out which won the Bi-State League championship this year.

"I was really happy," Woody continued, "and I don't think there was a person on the park who didn't know that I was happy and that the breaks of that last game had gone our way to allow us the chance to clinch the flag.

"The boys all played hard and I think we had a little luck in defeating a very worthy opponent. Westvaco had a never-say-die club and you certainly can't say they were a pushover."

● — ● — ●

Local fans will recall that Woodson won 10 and lost 5 during the regular season, notching eight straight to conclude the regular campaign. In the playoff semi-final he copped one and lost one against the Amvets, the defeat being a 1-0 fourteen inning affair, and he won all four games for Queen City in the seven-game finale with Westvaco for the league title. "Woody" whiffed 156 batsmen over the entire season, according to Mr. Northcraft, Queen City's figure filbert.

Ed Modzelewski, who scored two touchdowns in the 20-13 win over Georgetown Frosh and starred on offense in his team's 26-7 triumph over the George Washington yearlings, is touted as the freshman football sensation at the University of Maryland.

Against the Colonials last Friday night, Ed passed 45 yards to Henry Fox for one score and gathered in George Howard's 20-yard aerial for another.

They say he's so good that he's capable of fitting into varsity shoes right now, if he were eligible. The young Terp hails from Har-Brack, Pa., was Al-State halfback, WPIAL, last year and runner-up as the Pennsylvania high school player of the year.

Modzelewski weighs 202 and is six feet tall.

He will be seen in action when Coach Bill Meek's eleven plays the West Virginia University Freshmen Thursday, November 18 at Fort Hill Stadium.

That will be the final game of the season for the College Park team which has won three straight games.

Jim Browning reports tickets for this noctural game are now on sale at local agencies. Get 'em while they're hot.

During the recent World Series games in Cleveland we met an old friend we hadn't seen for 18 years. In fact we've always regarded him as one of the nicest fellows we've ever met in baseball. He is none other than Eddie Dyer, the affable Texan who manages the St. Louis Cardinals.

Dyer, you'll recall managed the Scottdale Club in the days Cumberland was in the Middle Atlantic League (1929 and 1930) and he's the same old Eddie, hasn't changed a bit

We had quite a chat with Dyer at baseball headquarters in the Hollenden Hotel and during the conversation we drifted back to the days when the Cards operated a "farm" club in the Pennsylvania mill town.

"Do you recall the time Joe Medwick came into the league under the name of Mickey King?" we asked. "Do I?" replied Dyer. "I'll tell you a little story about him.

"St. Louis sent Joe to Scottdale as Mickey King because the Carteret, N.J. youngster, then only 19, figured on returning to college to play football if he didn't make the grade. Hence, he didn't want his right name to appear in the box scores.

"The kid was a ball of fire and was hitting around .500 when we moved to Fairmont for a series. There we decided to play him under his right name.

"But here's the payoff. When the name Medwick appeared in the box score while the team was on the raod I received a wire from Scottdale worded as follows:

"How come you removed a .500 hitter like King from the lineup and replace him with a newcomer named Medwick?"

"The officials at Scottdale were unaware that King was really Medwick and the players went into convulsions of laughter when the telegram from Scottdale was received," Dyer concluded.

Medwick played under the name King at Wheeling in 1929 and hit .310 in 155 games. In his one year at Scottdale in 1930 he was in 75 games and batted .419. Frank Doljack of Wheeling, however, won the batting championship that season with an average of .386 for 116 games.

Scottdale happens to be the birthplace of Jack Onslow, newly appointed manager of the Chicago White Sox.

Jack served as coach for five major league teams, scouted for the Boston Braves and uncovered several players who became major leaguers, including Tommy Holmes and Sibby Sisti.

TEN DETROIT PLAYERS DECLARED FREE AGENTS BY HAPPY CHANDLER

CINCINNATI, Oct. 27 (AP)—Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler today declared 10 members of the Detroit American League club farm system to be free agents.

Only one of the players is on the Tiger team at present—Oswald B. Kolweis, who was transferred outright to that club from Little Rock of the Southern Association, last Sept. 1.

Kolweis is a pitcher, and was with Durham during the season just ended.

Chandler accused Detroit of engaging in "cover-up deals" of young players, moving them from one club to another in violation of the rules.

Other players declared free agents and the clubs they were with at the time today's action was taken are Clem Cola, James Austin Moran and Donald Thomas Myers, Little Rock; Clifford Dooley, Fred G. Ahrens, William P. MacDonald, Jr., and Ernest Jeanes Wilemon, all of Flint; Paul E. Hinrichs and William R. Serena, Buffalo.

Everett Clem's Average Of 166.5 Paces Pinmen Of National League

Joe Felton Is Runner-Up With Mark Of 166; Willison's 634 And Fisher's 263 Are High

Everett Clem of Roxy is setting the pace for the first quarter in the National Division of the Men's City Bowling League with an average of 166.5 for 12 games.

Joe Felton of Club Recreation is right on his heels with an even 166 for 13 games while Tom Weese of the Club holds third place with a 163.

Bob Willison of Savoy has posted a 634 for high set and "Jake" Fisher of Harbaugh's leads with a high game score of 263.

The highest team score for three games rolled to date is 2,499 credited to the Savoy. Club holds the high score of 905 for a single game. The averages:

Dickey Returns To New York As Yankees' Coach

Rounds Out Stengel Staff Of Directors

NEW YORK, Oct. 27 (AP)—The New York Yankees completed their fall housecleaning today by bringing back Bill Dickey, great former catcher, to round out Manager Casey Stengel's coaching staff.

Dickey, who has been out of baseball for a year, said "it feels like coming back home—I feel all choked up about it."

The tall man who for nearly 20 years helped club the Yanks to baseball glory joins three other old Yankees—Frank Crosetti, Jim Turner and Johnny Neun—on Stengel's brain trust.

Announcement of Dickey's appointment came only a few hours after word that Chuck Dressen, last of the club's holdover coaches, had been named manager of the Oakland Club of the Pacific Coast League.

General Manager George Weiss said he didn't know what Dickey's duties would be—whether he would coach on the baselines or concentrate on developing pitchers.

"All I know is that Stengel jumped at the chance to get him," he said.

"Whatever Stengel wants me to do is okay," Dickey said. "I'm really glad to be back with the Yanks. I turned down a job with another big league club last season."

So far as baseball historians could recall, Dickey is the first man ever to come back as coach of a club he once managed. He took over as Yankee pilot after Joe McCarthy resigned in May, 1946, and held the position until Sept. 12 that year.

He was succeeded by Neun, who finished out the season as manager and then moved to Cincinnati. Neun, let out by Cincinnati, rejoined the Yanks as a "player contact man" yesterday.

Navy To Be "Up" For Notre Dame

ANNAPOLIS Md., Oct. 27—(AP)—Navy looked good against the J. V. version of Notre Dame's sliding defense today, and Coach George Sauer said "We could do it."

Notre Dame seeks its 24th straight win Saturday at Baltimore against Navy, which has lost ten straight.

"They're not invincible," Sauer said after new fullback Al McCully broke loose for a couple of 60-yard dashes. "McCully was running better than he has all year," Sauer said.

He said Navy's downfield and close-line blocking "is improving every day" and "the boys will be pretty well up" for Notre Dame.

Game Moved Back

The St. Mary's-St. Patrick's gridiron game in the Knights of Columbus Catholic Youth Football League has been moved back one day to tomorrow. The tilt originally slated to be played today will get underway at 4:15 p. m. at Campobello tomorrow. St. Mary's will be seeking their second victory, having defeated SS. Peter and Paul in their opener last Friday by the score of 26-7. Fritz Palmer and Ray Swach will be the officials.

Chuck Bednarik Named Lineman Of Week In Poll

Big Penn Center Is Boone To Television

By TOM BRADSHAW

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 27 (AP)—Chuck Bednarik, the University of Pennsylvania's All-America center, is a boon to the football fan a la television.

The big 220-pounder from Bethlehem, Pa., is in the middle of so many plays—both offensively and defensively—the video viewer can't go far wrong by keeping his eyes on Bednarik.

That's the impression you get while watching "The Clutch" perform on an eight-by-ten inch television screen through four games this season.

All of which is not the only reason he was chosen "Lineman of the Week" in the latest poll conducted by the Associated Press.

Bednarik's performance against Navy last Saturday was typical of his play with Penn not only this year but during the last two as well.

Penn, fighting to protect an unbeaten-untied record, led by a 20-14 score in the final period. Navy elected to try a running play instead of punting on fourth down.

Bednarik—defensive line backer—diagnosed the play and stopped the Middie runner short of the first down. Penn took over and the game was on ice from then on.

In the Navy game, Bednarik shared the punting chores as he had done against Dartmouth, Columbia and Princeton. He also carries the ball on a fake kick play and against Columbia turned passer once.

"Bednarik could play any position on the team," says Penn coach George Munger, "and he would be outstanding no matter where he played."

The linemen nominated this week:

Ends—Thompson, Clemson, McPeak, Pitt. Defranco, Xavier. Holder, Texas. Wilson, South Carolina. Riffenberg, Michigan; Sheehan, Missouri; Wimberly, Louisiana State; McKenzie, Iowa; Weiner, North Carolina.

Tackles—Conti, Detroit; Morrical, Indiana; Petrovich, Texas; Prince, Clemson; Eoff, Texas Christian; Tinsley, Baylor; Brown, Texas Christian; Healy, Georgia Tech; Henry, Army; Nomellini, Minnesota; Watts, North Carolina State; Sarratore, Chattanooga.

Centers—Yeoman, Army; Watson, Rice; Huebner, Baylor; McCurry, Michigan State; Bednarik, Pennsylvania; Joe Drazenovich, Penn State; Tonnemaker, Minnesota; Dworsky, Michigan; Beatty, Penn State.

Don't Delay Again Involved In "Ringer" Case At Montreal

NEW YORK, Oct. 27 (INS) — Spencer Drayton, chief of the Thoroughbred Racing Association today announced the year's second "ringer" case concerning a horse which twice before—in 1946—was involved in similar charges.

The case involves the horse Don't Relay which ran as Lid in a Montreal race last August, defeated a field of 12, and left the post at 5 to 1 after having opened at 15 to 1 in the betting.

Drayton said the case has been turned over to Canadian authorities and the TRA became concerned with the case because both horses currently are stabled in the United States.

The TRA investigation included seven states and, according to Drayton, brought an admission from Don't Delay's former owner—Robert A. Edwards of Smithfield, Va.—that the horse had been shipped from Rhode Island to Montreal to run as Lid.

Lid is a ten-year-old gelding which was retired to a Massachusetts farm last July and has remained there.

Don't Delay figured in 1946 "ringer" cases at Charles Town, W. Va. and at Bel Air, Md.

Lions Involved In Three-Way Trade

DETROIT, Oct. 27 (AP) — The Detroit Lions' swinging door opened again today to let Fullback Pat West out less than 24 hours after he reported to the National Professional Football League team.

West went to the Green Bay Packers in a deal that gave Detroit Fullback Kenneth Roskie, 26, former University of South Carolina captain.

Quarterback James Youel came to Detroit Monday morning from the Boston Yanks. Three hours after he arrived he was traded to the Los Angeles Rams for West. The latter arrived in Detroit Tuesday, checked in a hotel, checked out today and proceeded on his way.

High School Star Boots 52-Yard Goal

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 27 (AP) — Harvey Kuenn, 17-year-old kicking star at Milwaukee Lutheran High School, was voted top spot today in a weekly honor roll of Wisconsin prep football stars for a drop-kicked field goal which traveled 52 yards. The mighty boot, delivered in a weekend game, was the longest in the state — prep, college or professional — this season. Lutheran won the game against Marquette University School, 24-14.

Caseys Defeat Owls

The Knights of Columbus shuffleboard team defeated the Owls Club three straight games at the K. of C. last night. Kilroy paced the winners with 29 points while Davalli had 21 for the losers.

ARTHUR COOK, OLYMPIC CHAMP, COPS NATIONAL RIFLE SHOOT HONORS

QUANTICO, Va., Oct. 27 (INS)—Arthur Cook, 20-year-old Olympic rifle champion from Maryland University, today won the National Rifle championship.

Harry Reeves, Detroit policeman, took the pistol shooting championship, defeating crack Marine and other armed service stars. It was his fourth National championship.

Reeves scored 2,611 out of a possible 2,700. Cook won the rifle title with 3,150 points out of a possible 3,200.

Billy Meyer Gets Baseball Manager Of The Year Honor

Pirates' Pilot Noses Out Southworth In Poll

By RALPH RODEN

NEW YORK, Oct. 27—(AP)—Billy Meyer, freshman pilot of the Pittsburgh Pirates, is the major leagues' "Manager of the Year."

The popular skipper of the Buccaneers won the honor in an Associated Press poll of 220 baseball writers throughout the country.

Meyer, who led the Pirates to a surprising four-place finish in the National League pennant race, nosed out Billy Southworth of the flag winning Boston Braves for the honor. Meyer received 89 votes to Southworth's 87.

The two National League leaders dominated the poll. No other pilot received more than 20 votes. Lou Boudreau, brilliant player-manager of the world champion Cleveland Indians, finished third in the balloting with 20. Joe McCarthy, manager of the Boston Red Sox, and Meyer's old sidekick, was fourth with 18 votes.

Other managers to draw votes were Bucky Harris, since released by the New York Yankees, 3; Steve O'Neill, Detroit, Burt Shotton, Brooklyn, and Connie Mack, Philadelphia, one each.

Meyer gained the top ranking because of his excellent job in bossing the Pirates into the first division. He took virtually the same club that finished in a last place tie with Philadelphia in 1947 and kept it in the pennant race up to the final two weeks of the season.

Fifty-six years old, Meyer began playing ball in the Florida State League when he was 16. A catcher, he knocked around the minors for four years before receiving a tryout with the Chicago White Sox in 1913. He played in one game for the White Sox and was sent back to the minors.

Late in 1915 Meyer joined the Philadelphia Athletics. He remained with the A's through 1916 and 1917. Following the 1917 season Meyer joined Louisville. He finished out his playing career with the Colonels, winding up in 1926.

At Louisville he was McCarthy's roommate. When McCarthy became manager of the Colonels in 1919 Meyer became his assistant.

Meyer replaced McCarthy at the Louisville helm in 1926 and led the Colonels to the pennant, the first of nine he won during his long managerial career in the minors. He won his last minor league pennant in 1947, leading the Kansas City Blues to the American Association title.

Fort Hill Reserves Top LaSalle, 28-12

The Fort Hill Reserves, paced by Jimmy Judd who tallied three touchdowns, scored a 28-12 victory over the LaSalle Reserves. The victory was the third in four starts for the Little Sentinels.

The Scarlet and White eleven racked up 16 first downs to the loser's eight. Ronnie Rowe, freshman quarterback, scored the final Port Hill six-pointer and sparked the team with several nice passes. All of Judd's scores came on long runs.

Pasquale DeMartino tallied both LaSalle touchdowns. Judd, George Lapp, Ralph Thuss and Bob Lee picked up the extra points for the winners. Both LaSalle attempts for the seventh point were stopped.

The Little Sentinels have now defeated Keyser and LaSalle and split even with Allegany.

Injunction Is Filed Against Scalper Ban

BALTIMORE, Oct. 27—(AP)—Injunction proceedings were filed in circuit court today against an ordinance passed Monday prohibiting the resale of football tickets over face value.

The suit was filed by Max Cohen of Baltimore, who contended he was "in the lawful business of reselling tickets of admission to football games."

Judge Joseph Sherbow declined to sign an advance order for a preliminary injunction. He scheduled a hearing on the validity of the new ordinance tomorrow.

Cohen's suit said the ordinance is arbitrary and discriminatory because it applies only to football tickets.

The ordinance provides a possible $500 fine for every ticket sold at an excess price.

City Solicitor Thomas N. Biddison said he was preparing an immediate answer.

Officials Named

Officials for the Allegany-Martinsburg football game Friday, Oct. 29, at Fort Hill stadium were announced last night.

Referee will by Estel "Eck" Miers. Umpire Bill Spangler and Head Linesman John Shelton.

Engineers Yield 125.8 Yards Per Contest To Foes

North Carolina State Is Second To Tech

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK, Oct. 27—(AP)—The Deep South, led by Georgia Tech, continues to put up the only noteworthy resistance to the hell-for-leather offensive type of football which is sweeping the nation's college gridrons.

Tech, which meets Duke on Saturday at Durham in one of week's big games, has yielded an average of 125.8 yards per game in crushing five opponents to lead the defense array.

North Corolina State climbed into second place with an average yield of 140.2 yards and North Carolina remained third at 159..6 Two other southern teams, Mississipi State and Tennessee, climbed into the first 10 by strong defensive showings last week.

The National Collegiate Athletic Bureau, which gathers the statistics, points out that the overall defensive picture virtually has become chaotic.

"Only the two top teams, Tech and North Carolina State, have records which would have put them in the first 10 at this time last season," a spokesman said. "The 10th team a year ago had given up only 144.8 yards per game, compared to 171.6 charged against Detroit, the present 10th.

"As further illustration of what is happening, only four of this week's top defensive teams were among the first 10 a week ago. Even Tech, the leader, gave up 100 yards by rushing in walloping Florida 42.7."

The 10 leaders in each department:

Total defense—Georgia Tech, 125.8 yards average yield per game to rushes and passes; North Carolina State, 140.2; North Carolina, 159.6; Northwestern, 160.8; Villanova, 162; Miami (O.), 166.2; Army, 167; Mississippi State, 169.6; Tennessee, 169.8; Detroit, 171.6.

Rushing defense—Georgia Tech, 52.8 yards average yielded per game; North Carolina, 69; Pennsylvania, 69.5; Minnesota, 76.0; Mississippi State, 84.4; West Virginia, 86.2; North Carolina State 87; Detroit 89.2; Kansas, 90; Michigan, 90.

Passing defense—Brown, 41 yards average yielded per game; Montana State, 47.8; Northwestern, 50.2; Villanova, 50.2; Maryland, 52.8; North Carolina State, 53.2; Brigham Young, 54.8; Utah, 55.5; Clemson, 56.8; New Mexico, 59.

Punting—North Carolina, 43 yards average per punt; Duke, 42.4; Furman, 42.1; Santa Clara, 42.1; Yale, 41.8; Marquette, 41.8; V.M.I., 41.8; Texas Mines, 41.3; Virginia Tech, 41.2; Montana State, 41.

LINDSAY IS SEVENTH PLAYER TO RECEIVE K OF C WEEKLY HONOR

Paul Lindsay, Ridgeley High School's hard-working fullback, became the seventh player to receive the Knights of Columbus weekly grid award on the basis of his outstanding play in a losing cause against the Fort Hill Sentinels last Saturday.

The fifth back to get the "player-of-the-week" honor, Lindsay was a constant thorn in the side of the undefeated Hilltoppers, the triple-threat 195-pounder punting, passing and running his team in a bid to halt the high-flying Sentinels.

Big Paul was tackled behind the goal line for a safety in the 30-0 defeat handed the West Virginians by Fort Hill but marshalled his teammates together and played a bang-up game defensively, the Hawks' stubborn defensive play against the Scarlet and White being one of the highlights of the game.

Also mentioned favorably by the Casey committee for the selection were Ed "Barney" Tucker, Fort Hill fullback who received the first award, and three LaSalle High gridders. The Centre Street eleven defeated St. Justin of Pittsburgh, Pa., Friday night and William Grabenstein, Mickey Clark and Dick Leo were outstanding for the Explorers.

No player has as yet repeated on the committee's list, the winners thus far being Tucker, Clark, Fred Corbin of Fort Hill, Glen Burke, Fort Hill, Wes Abrams and Earl "Lefty" Bruce, both of Allegany.

Orioles Buy Frazier From St. Louis Club

BALTIMORE, Oct. 27 (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles of the International League announced today the purchase of outfielder Joe Frazier from the St. Louis Browns.

Frazier played last season with San Antonio of the Texas League. A pro player since 1941, he also has played with Oklahoma City, Wilkes-Barre, Cedar Rapids, Ia., and Leaksville, N. C.

Frazier is a southpaw hitter and right hand thrower. He is a native of Tulsa, Okla.

Sterope Wins English Cambridgeshire Stakes

NEWMARKET, Eng., Oct. 27 (INS)—Sterope, a 25 to 1 longshot, edged the favored Royal Tara by a half-length today to win the rich Cambridgeshire Stakes at Newmarket.

Four horses stormed toward the wire in the nine-furlong race and two of them—Patchouly and Impeccable—finished in a dead heat for third place.

Dressen Is Named New Oakland Pilot

OAKLAND, Calif., Oct. 27 (AP) — Chuck Dressen, New York Yankees coach, will manage the Oakland club in the Pacific Coast Baseball League next season.

The announcement was made today by Clarence (Brick) Laws, owner of the Oaks.

Dressen will succeed Casey Stengel, named recently as manager of the New York Yanks.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our friends and neighbors for the kindness and helpfulness during the illness and following the death of our wife and daughter, Mrs. Catherine Brobst Craver. We also wish to thank all who gave flowers and contributed the use of their automobiles for the funeral service.

Harry Craver and Children,
Mrs. Hattie Brobst.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our wife and aunt, Mrs. Jane Ann Green, who passed away two years ago today, October 28, 1946.

To you who have passed on, whose soul can see
The beauties of a mystery hid from me,
These lines in faith, that over there you wait
And I shall greet you when I pass the Gate.

Sadly missed by her Husband—John J. Green and Nephew—Walter T. Russell.

1948

PROCLAMATION OF GOVERNOR WM. PRESTON LANE, JR. OF MARYLAND, DIRECTING THE PUBLICATION OF ACTS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF 1947 PROPOSING AMENDMENTS TO THE STATE CONSTITUTION.

Whereas, in its regular session of 1947, the General Assembly passed Chapters 109, 162, 479, 505, 618, 623 and 721 proposing amendments to the State Constitution; and

Whereas, it is the duty of the Governor under Section 1, of Article XIV, of the Constitution, to publish said proposals in advance of the General Election of November 2, 1948; and

Whereas, there will be presented on the ballot at said election the following proposed amendments of the Constitution, for adoption or rejection by the voters:

CHAPTER NO. 109

AN ACT to propose an amendment to Section 1 of Article II, title "Executive Department," of the State Constitution, to provide that a Governor who has served two consecutive popular elective terms of office shall not be eligible to succeed himself for the term immediately following the second of his two said consecutive terms and to provide for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of this State for adoption or rejection.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland (three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses concurring), That the following section be and the same is hereby proposed as an amendment to Section 1 of Article 2 of the Constitution of the State of Maryland.

Section 1. The executive power of the State shall be vested in a Governor, whose term of office shall commence on the second Wednesday of January next ensuing his election, and continue for four years, and until his successor shall have qualified; and a person who has served two consecutive popular elective terms of office as Governor shall be ineligible to succeed himself as Governor for the term immediately following the second of said two consecutive popular elective terms.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the aforegoing Section hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of this State shall be, at the next general election to be held in this State in the year 1948, submitted to the legal and qualified voters thereof for their adoption or rejection in pursuance of directions contained in Article 14 of the Constitution of this State, and at the said general election, the vote on the said proposed amendment shall be by ballot, and upon each ballot there shall be printed the words "For the Constitutional Amendment" and "Against the Constitutional Amendment," as now prescribed by law, and immediately after said election, due returns shall be made to the Governor of the vote for and against said proposed amendment as directed by said Article 14 of the Constitution.

CHAPTER NO. 162

AN ACT to propose an amendment to Article XIB of the Constitution of Maryland, title "Baltimore Redevelopment Commission," said amendment to be under the title "City of Baltimore—Land Development and Redevelopment," relating to the acquisition and disposal of property by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore for certain purposes, and to provide for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of the State of Maryland for adoption or rejection.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland (three-fifths of all the members of each of the two Houses concurring), That the title and sections be and the same are hereby proposed as an amendment to Article XIB of the Constitution of Maryland, title "Baltimore Redevelopment Commission," the same, if adopted by the qualified voters of the State of Maryland, as herein provided, to supersede and stand in the place and stead of the title to, and Sections 1 and 2 of Article XIB of said Constitution.

CITY OF BALTIMORE—LAND DEVELOPMENT AND REDEVELOPMENT

Section 1. The General Assembly of Maryland, by public local law, may authorize and empower the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore:

(a) To acquire, within the boundary line of Baltimore City, land and property of every kind, and any rights, interest, franchise, easement or privilege, therein, by purchase, lease, gift, condemnation or any other legal means, for development or redevelopment, including, but not limited to, the comprehensive renovation or rehabilitation thereof; and

(b) To sell, lease, convey, transfer or otherwise dispose of any of said land or property, regardless of whether or not it has been developed, redeveloped, altered or improved and irrespective of the manner or means in or by which it may have been acquired, to any private, public or quasi public corporation, partnership, association, person or other legal entity.

No land or property taken by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore for any of the aforementioned purposes or in connection with the exercise of any of the powers which may be granted to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore pursuant to this Article by exercising the power of eminent domain, shall be taken without just compensation, as agreed upon between the parties, or awarded by a jury, being first paid or tendered to the party entitled to such compensation.

All land or property needed, or taken by the exercise of the power of eminent domain, by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore for any of the aforementioned purposes or in connection with the exercise of any of the powers which may be granted to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore pursuant to this Article is hereby declared to be needed or taken for a public use.

Section 2. The General Assembly of Maryland may grant to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore any and all additional power and authority necessary or proper to the full force and effect of any and all of the specific powers which the General Assembly is authorized to grant to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore in this Article and to fully accomplish any and all of the purposes and objects contemplated by the provisions of this Article, provided such additional power or authority is not inconsistent with the terms and provisions of this Article or with any other provision or provisions of the Constitution of Maryland. The General Assembly may place such other and further restrictions or limitations on the exercise of any of the powers which it may grant to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore under the provisions of this Article as it may deem proper and expedient.

Section 3. The Baltimore Redevelopment Commission may continue in existence and shall have and may continue to exercise any of the powers and authority which is now or hereafter may be vested in the Commission by law, until such time as such power and authority of the Commission is vested in the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore by an act of the General Assembly of Maryland or by an ordinance or resolution of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore and a new agency of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore is created to carry out the objects and purposes for which the Baltimore Redevelopment Commission was originally created; and nothing contained in this Article shall be taken or construed to the contrary.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the aforegoing title and sections hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of Maryland, shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the State of Maryland for their adoption or rejection in pursuance of the directions contained in Article XIV of the Constitution of Maryland, and at the said general election the vote on the proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be by ballot, and upon each ballot there shall be printed the words "For Constitutional Amendment" and "Against Constitutional Amendment," as now provided by law, and immediately after said election due returns shall be made to the Governor of the vote for and against said proposed amendment, as directed by said Article XIV.

CHAPTER NO. 497

AN ACT to propose an amendment to Article 3 of the Constitution of Maryland, title "Legislative Department," amending Sections 14, 15 and 52 of said Article, providing for annual sessions of the General Assembly of Maryland, and providing for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of the State for adoption or rejection.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland (three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses concurring), That the following sections be and they are hereby proposed as an amendment to Article 3 of the Constitution of Maryland, title "Legislative Department," amending Sections 14, 15 and 52 of said Article, the same, if adopted by the qualified voters of the State, as herein provided, to supersede and stand in the place and stead of Sections 14, 15 and 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution of Maryland.

14. The General Assembly shall meet on the first Wednesday of January, nineteen hundred and forty-nine, and on the same day in every second year thereafter, and on the first Wednesday in February, nineteen hundred and fifty, and on the same day in every second year thereafter, and at no other time, unless convened by Proclamation of the Governor.

15. The General Assembly may continue its session as long as in its judgment the public interest may require, but a period not longer than ninety days in odd years and thirty days in even years, and on and after January 1, 1949 each member of the General Assembly shall receive a compensation of Thirteen Hundred Dollars ($1,300.00) per annum, payable quarterly, with a deduction of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) per diem for each day of unexcused absence from any session; and he shall also receive such mileage as may be allowed by law, not exceeding Twenty Cents per mile; and the presiding officers of both Houses shall receive and each Speaker pro tempore of Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($250) per annum, in any of said thirty-day sessions in even years, the General Assembly shall not consider any other matter than such as may be in any way connected with Legislation, Revenue and Financial matters of the State Government, (2) legislation dealing with an acute emergency and (3) legislation dealing with the General Welfare. When the General Assembly shall be convened by Proclamation of the Governor, the session shall not continue longer than thirty days, but the Governor may convene other and further sessions of the General Assembly, and the per diem and other allowances provided by law shall be paid members of the General Assembly for special session.

(2) The General Assembly shall not appropriate any money out of the Treasury except in accordance with the provisions of this Section.

(3) Appropriation bill shall be either a Budget Bill or a Supplementary Appropriation Bill as hereinafter provided.

(4) Within twenty days after the convening of the General Assembly, in the case of a newly elected Governor, and then within three days after his inauguration, unless such time shall be extended by the General Assembly, and in the odd Wednesday in February in even-numbered years, the Governor shall submit to the General Assembly a Budget for the next ensuing fiscal year. Such Budget shall contain a complete plan of proposed expenditures and estimated revenues for said fiscal year and shall show the estimated surplus or deficit of revenues at the end of the current fiscal year. Administrative units shall prepare such estimates as may be required by the Governor. Such Budget shall be a statement showing (a) the revenues and expenditures for the preceding fiscal year; (b) the current assets, liabilities, reserves and surplus or deficit of the State; (c) an estimate of the same items as of the end of the fiscal year next succeeding; (d) an estimate of the financial condition as of the beginning and end of the preceding fiscal year; (e) any explanation the Governor may desire to make as to the important features of the Budget and any suggestions as to methods for reduction or increase of the State's revenue.

(5) Each Budget shall embrace an itemized estimate of the appropriations, as follows: (a) for the General Assembly as certified to the Governor in the manner hereinafter provided; (b) for the Executive Department; (c) for the Judiciary Department, as provided by law, certified by the Comptroller; (d) to pay and discharge the principal and interest of the debt of the State in conformity with Section 34 of Article 3 of the Constitution, and all laws enacted in pursuance thereof; (e) for the salaries payable by the State under the Constitution and laws of the State; (f) for the establishment and maintenance throughout the State of a thorough and efficient system of public schools in conformity with Article 8 of the Constitution and with the laws of the State; (g) for such other purposes as are set forth in the Constitution or laws of the State.

(6) The Governor shall deliver to the presiding officer of each House the Budget and a bill for all the proposed appropriations of the Budget classified and in such detail as he shall determine or as may be prescribed by law; and the presiding officer of each House shall promptly cause said bill to be introduced therein, and such bill shall be known as the "Budget Bill." The Governor may, with the consent of the General Assembly, before final action thereon by the General Assembly, amend or supplement said Budget to correct an oversight, provide funds contingent on passage of pending legislation or, in case of an emergency, by delivering such an amendment or supplement to the presiding officers of both Houses; and such amendment or supplement shall thereby become a part of said Budget Bill as an addition to the items of said bill or as a modification of or a substitute for any item of said bill such amendment or supplement may affect.

(6) The General Assembly shall not amend the Budget Bill so as to affect either the obligations of the State under Section 34 of Article 3 of the Constitution or the provisions made by the laws of the State for the establishment and maintenance of a system of public schools or the payment of any salaries required to be paid by the State of Maryland by the Constitution thereof, and the General Assembly may amend the bill by increasing or diminishing the items therein relating to the General Assembly, and by increasing to the items therein relating to the judiciary, but except as hereinbefore specified, may not alter the said bill except to strike out or reduce items therein, provided, however, that the salary or compensation of any public officer shall not be decreased during his term of office; and such bill, when and as passed by both Houses, shall be a law immediately without further action by the Governor.

(7) The Governor and such representatives of the executive departments, boards, officers and commissions of the State as may be called for by the Governor for this purpose, shall have the right, and when requested by either House of the General Assembly, it shall be their duty to appear and be heard with respect to any Budget Bill during the consideration thereof, and to answer inquiries relative thereto.

(8) Supplementary Appropriation Bill. Neither House shall consider other appropriations until the Budget Bill has been finally acted upon by both Houses, but such other appropriation shall be valid except in accordance with the provisions following: (a) Every such appropriation shall be embodied in a separate bill limited to some single work, object or purpose therein stated and called herein a Supplementary Appropiation Bill; (b) Each Supplementary Appropriation Bill shall provide the revenue necessary to pay the appropriation thereby made a tax, direct or indirect, to be levied and collected as shall be directed in said bill; (c) No Supplementary Appropriation Bill shall become a law unless it be passed in each House by a vote of a majority of the whole number of the members elected, and the yeas and nays recorded on its final passage; (d) Each Supplementary Appropriation Bill shall be presented to the Governor of the State as provided in Section 17 of Article 2 of the Constitution and thereafter all the provisions of said section shall apply.

(9) Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing the General Assembly from passing at any time, in accordance with the provisions of Section 29 of Article 3 of the Constitution and subject to the Governor's power of approval as provided in Section 17 of Article 2 of the Constitution, an appropriation bill to provide for the payment of any obligation of the State within the protection of Section 10 of Article 1 of the Constitution of the United States.

(10) If the Budget Bill shall not have been finally acted upon by the Legislature three days before the expiration of its regular session, the Governor may, and it shall be his duty to issue a proclamation extending the session for some further period as may, in his judgment, be necessary for the passage of such bill, but no other matter than such bill shall be considered during such extended session except a provision for the cost thereof.

(11) The Governor for the purpose of making up his Budget shall have the power, and it shall be his duty, to require from the proper State officials, including herein all executive departments, all executive and administrative offices, bureaus, boards, commissions and agencies, expending or supervising the expenditure of, and all institutions applying for State moneys and appropriations, such itemized estimates and other information, in such form and at such times as he shall direct. The estimates for the Legislative Department, certified by the presiding officer of each House, of the Judiciary, as provided by law, certified by the Comptroller, and for the public schools, as provided by law, shall be transmitted to the Governor, in such form and at such times as he shall direct, and shall be included in the Budget without revision.

(12) The Governor may provide for public hearings on all estimates and may require the attendance at such hearings of representatives of all agencies, and for all institutions applying for State moneys. After such public hearings he may, in his discretion, revise all estimates except those for the legislative and judiciary departments, and for the public schools, as provided by law.

(13) The General Assembly may, from time to time, enact such laws not inconsistent with this section, as may be necessary and proper to carry out its provisions.

(14) In the event of any inconsistency between any Legislative provisions of this Section and any of the other provisions of the Constitution, the provisions of this Section shall prevail. But nothing herein shall be construed to affect the provisions of Section 34 of Article 3 of the Constitution or of any laws heretofore or hereafter passed in pursuance thereof, or be construed as preventing the Governor from calling extraordinary sessions of the General Assembly, as provided by Section 16 of Article 2, or as preventing the General Assembly at such extraordinary sessions from considering any emergency appropriation or appropriations.

(15) If any item of any appropriation bill passed under the provisions of this Section shall be held invalid upon any ground, such invalidity shall not affect the legality of the bill or of any other item of such bill or bills.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the aforegoing section hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Maryland shall at the next general election to be held in November, 1948, be submitted to the legal and qualified voters of the State of Maryland for their adoption or rejection, in pursuance of the directions contained in Article 14 of the Constitution of the State of Maryland, and at the said general election the vote on the said proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be by ballot, and upon each ballot there shall be printed the words "For the Constitutional Amendment" and "Against the Constitutional Amendment," as now provided by law, and immediately after said election due returns shall be made to the Governor of the vote for and against said proposed amendment, as directed by said Fourteenth Article of the Constitution, and further proceedings had in accordance with said Article XIV.

CHAPTER NO. 505

AN ACT to propose an amendment to the Constitution of Maryland, by adding a new article thereto, to follow immediately after Article XIB, and to be known as Article XIC, relating to the acquisition and disposal of property by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore for certain purposes, and to provide for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of the State of Maryland for adoption or rejection.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland (three fifths of all the members of each of the two Houses concurring), That the following Article to follow immediately after Article XIB, and to be known as Article XIC, be and the same is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of Maryland, which Article, if adopted by the qualified voters of the State of Maryland, as herein provided, shall thereby be and become a part of the Constitution of Maryland:

ARTICLE XIC
OFF-STREET PARKING

Sec. 1. The General Assembly of Maryland, by public local law, may authorize the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore City, or any agency thereof, to acquire land and property of every kind, and any right, interest, franchise, easement or privilege therein, by purchase, lease, gift, condemnation or any other legal means, for storing, parking and servicing self-propelled vehicles, provided, that no petroleum products shall be sold or offered for sale at any entrance to or exit from, any land so acquired or any entrance to, or exit from, any structure erected thereon, when any entrance to, or exit from, any such land or structure faces on a street or highway which is more than 23 feet wide from curb to curb; and

(b) To sell, lease, convey, transfer or otherwise dispose of any of said land or property, regardless of whether or not it has been developed, redeveloped, altered, or improved and irrespective of the manner or means in or by which it may have been acquired, to any private, public or quasi public corporation, partnership, association, person or other legal entity.

No land or property taken by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore for any of the aforementioned purposes or in connection with the exercise of any of the powers which may be granted to the Mayor and City Council of
